

Day 1 - Teach. Divider slide: show while students get materials ready.

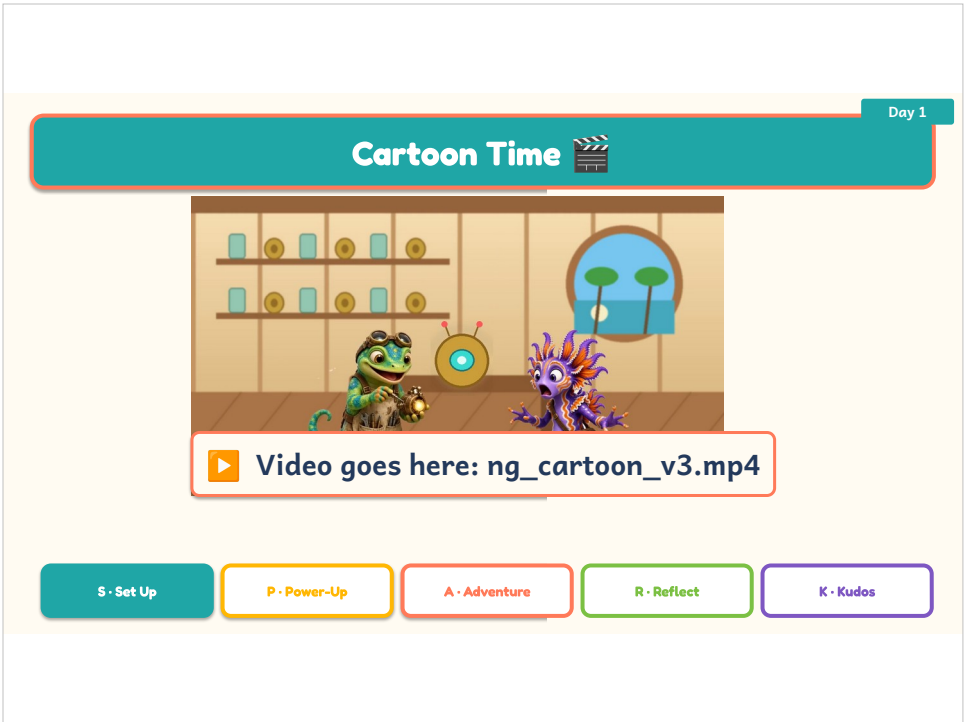

Day 1: Meet the Nose Hum: ng. Focus: Introduce ng and the 4 glued chunks (ang, ing, ong, ung). Materials: Slides Day 1 · ng sound card · chunk cards ang/ing/ong/ung · whiteboards + markers · Picture Match page. SET UP (2 min): packets out, start the class timer.

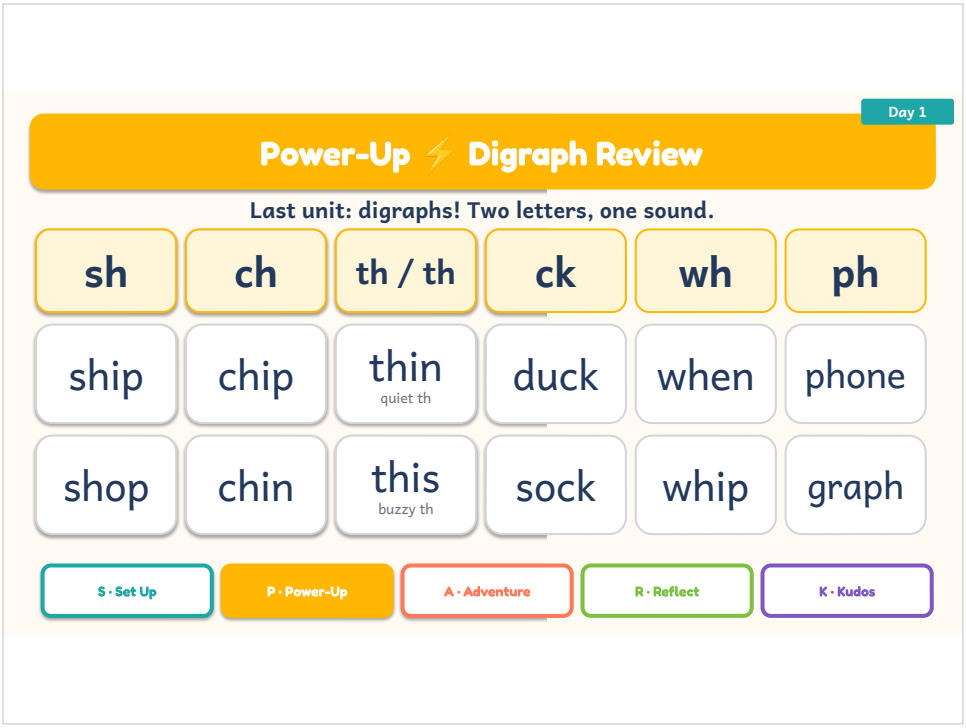

Introduce the mascots. Zip is a gecko inventor. Frill is a dramatic sea slug. Both names are decodable: students can read them!

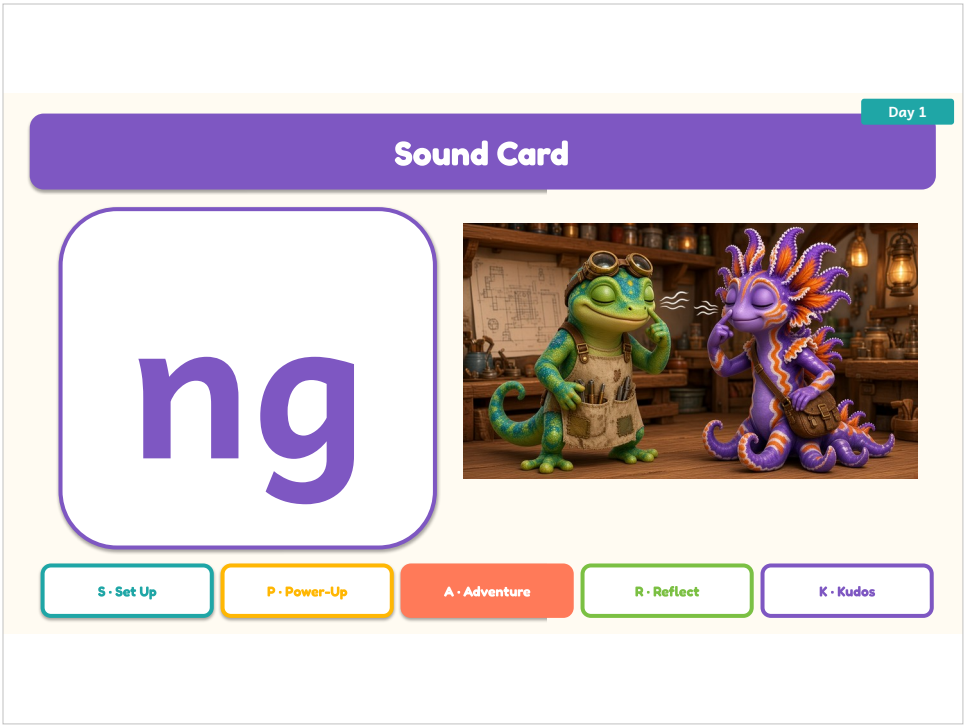

SET UP · Our Reading Quest (1 min).
SAY: 'Our goal this week is to learn the sound ng.' Point to the goal box.
SAY: 'We are on the blue S. S is Set Up: we make sure we are ready.' Point to the blue S circle.
READY CHECK: pencil, Student Workbook open, eyes on me, body calm. Thumbs up when you are ready.
Point across the circles: 'Every day we go S, P, A, R, K in order: Set Up, Power-Up, Adventure, Reflect, Kudos.'

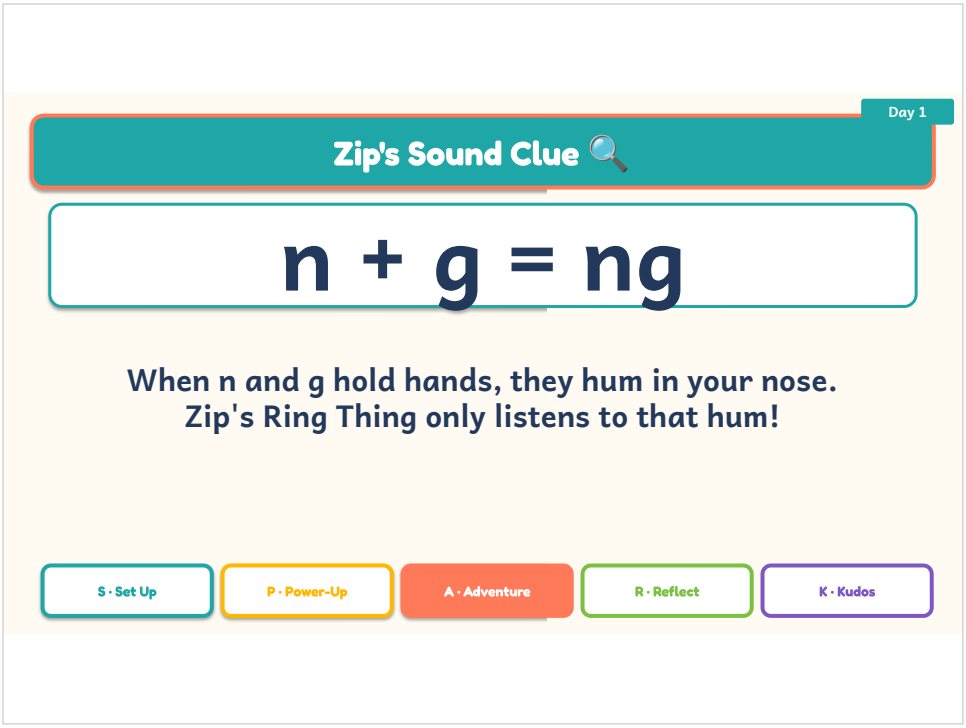

SET UP · Opener cartoon (3 min): 'Zip and Frill: The Ring Thing Goes BONK!' (5 Cartoon folder: ng_cartoon_v3.mp4).
INSERT VIDEO: In PowerPoint/Slides use Insert > Video and pick ng_cartoon_v3.mp4, then delete this placeholder box.
BEFORE: 'Zip's gadget only listens to one sound. Help them when they say HELP US!'
DURING: Pause is built in at each Help-us prompt; cheer the class on. AFTER: 'What sound fixed the Ring Thing?' (/ng/)

POWER-UP · Digraph review (3 min). Quick review of last lesson (Lesson 2.2 digraphs).
WARM-UP: 3 sea breaths like Frill (in through the nose, out like a wave).
SAY: 'Last unit we learned digraphs: two letters that make ONE sound.'
TOP ROW: point to each digraph; students say the sound: /sh/, /ch/, /th/, /k/, /w/, /f/.
th / th: 'th has two sounds. Quiet th: put your tongue out and blow, no voice (thin). Buzzy th: same tongue, voice on, feel your throat buzz (this).'
WORDS: point to each word tile; students read it chorally. Then call on 2-3 students to read a column alone.
ERROR FIX: If a child reads the letters

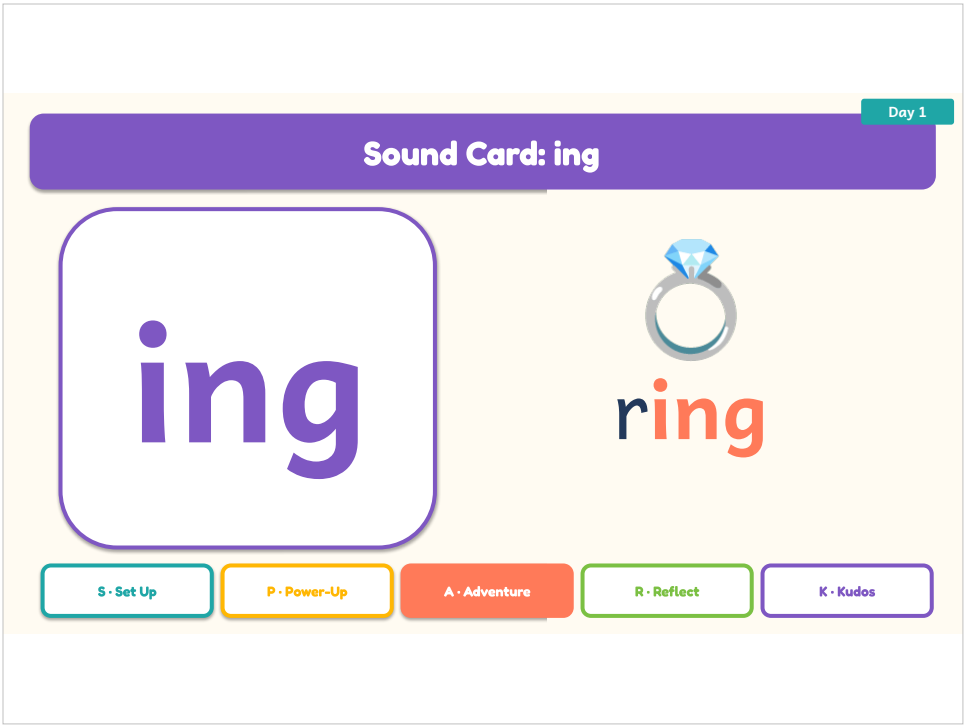

I DO: 'Look: n and g. When they sit together they make ONE sound: /ng/. It hums in your nose. Touch your nose: /ng/. Feel it buzz?' Students echo 3 times.

ADVENTURE · Zip's Sound Clue (teacher reads, 1 min). Zip the inventor has a clue about how ng works.
I DO: 'Zip found a clue! When n and g sit together, they hold hands and make ONE new sound: /ng/. You can't hear the n or the g alone. Put a finger on your nose and hum: /ng/. Feel the buzz? That is the nose hum!'
WE DO: Everyone touches noses and says /ng/ three times, long and short.
ERROR FIX: If a child says /n/ + /g/ ('n-guh'), say 'Glue them! No guh at the end. Listen: /ng/. Your turn.'

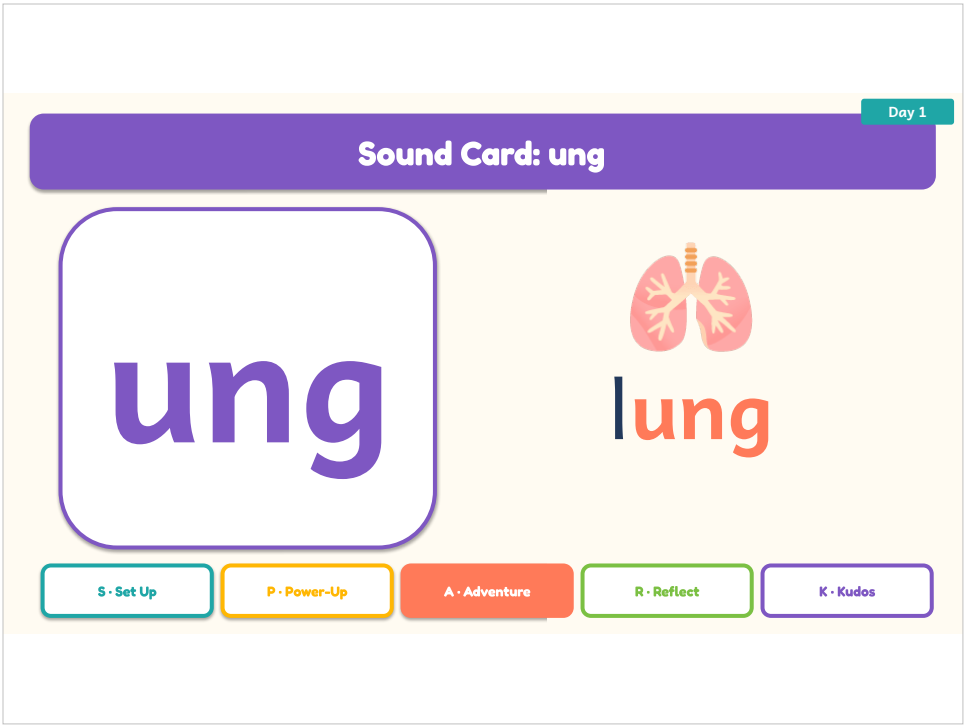

ADVENTURE · Meet the glue chunk ang.
I DO: 'This is ang. The vowel glues onto ng and we say it as one chunk: ang.' Touch your nose and feel the hum. Point to the picture: 'fang. I hear ang at the end: f … ang … fang.'
WE DO: Say ang together 3 times, then fang together while you sweep under the word.
YOU DO: Each child says ang, then reads fang alone.
ERROR FIX: If a child splits it ('a-n-g'), cover the word and say, 'Glued! My turn: ang. Your turn.' If they add a hard /g/ at the end, have them hold the nose hum and stop.

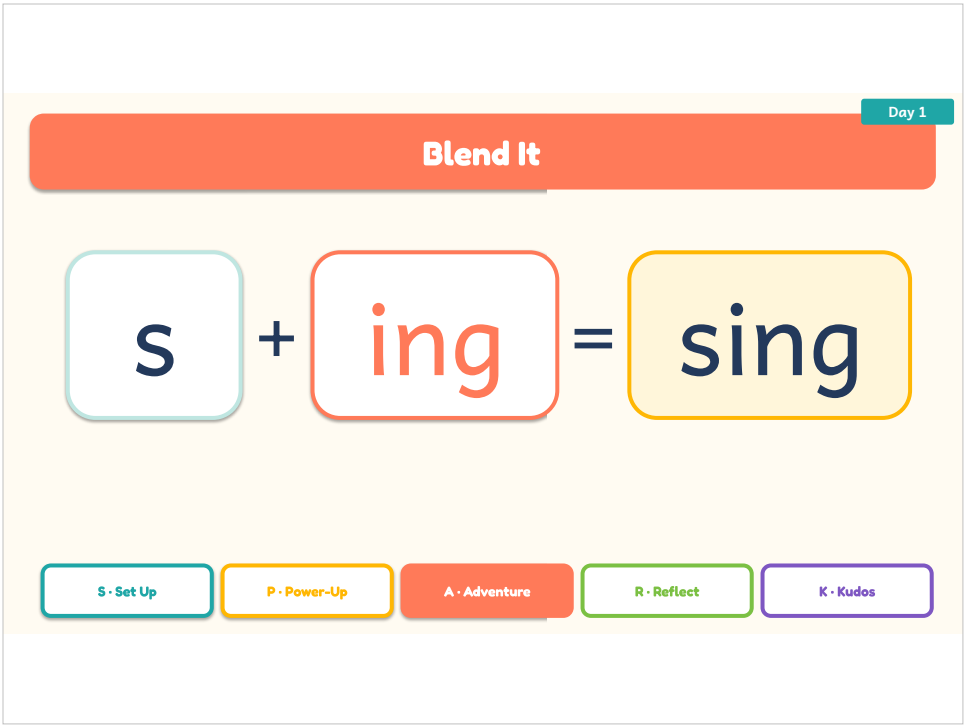

ADVENTURE · Meet the glue chunk ing.
I DO: 'This is ing. The vowel glues onto ng and we say it as one chunk: ing.' Touch your nose and feel the hum. Point to the picture: 'ring. I hear ing at the end: r … ing … ring.'
WE DO: Say ing together 3 times, then ring together while you sweep under the word.
YOU DO: Each child says ing, then reads ring alone.
ERROR FIX: If a child splits it ('i-n-g'), cover the word and say, 'Glued! My turn: ing. Your turn.' If they add a hard /g/ at the end, have them hold the nose hum and stop.

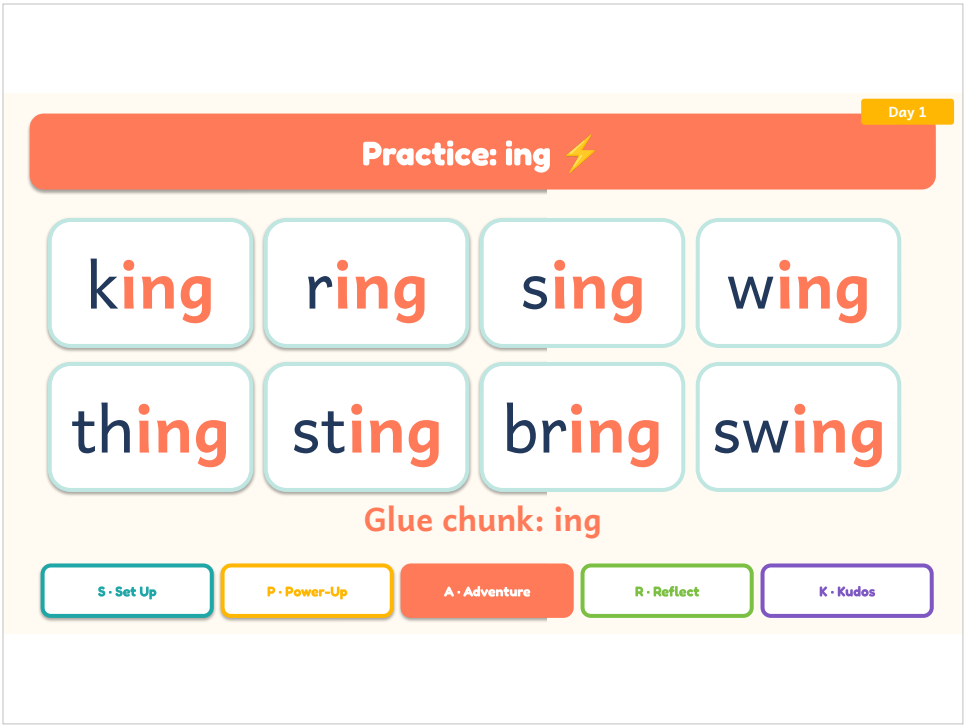

ADVENTURE · Meet the glue chunk ong.
I DO: 'This is ong. The vowel glues onto ng and we say it as one chunk: ong.' Touch your nose and feel the hum. Point to the picture: 'gong. I hear ong at the end: g … ong … gong.'
WE DO: Say ong together 3 times, then gong together while you sweep under the word.
YOU DO: Each child says ong, then reads gong alone.
ERROR FIX: If a child splits it ('o-n-g'), cover the word and say, 'Glued! My turn: ong. Your turn.' If they add a hard /g/ at the end, have them hold the nose hum and stop.

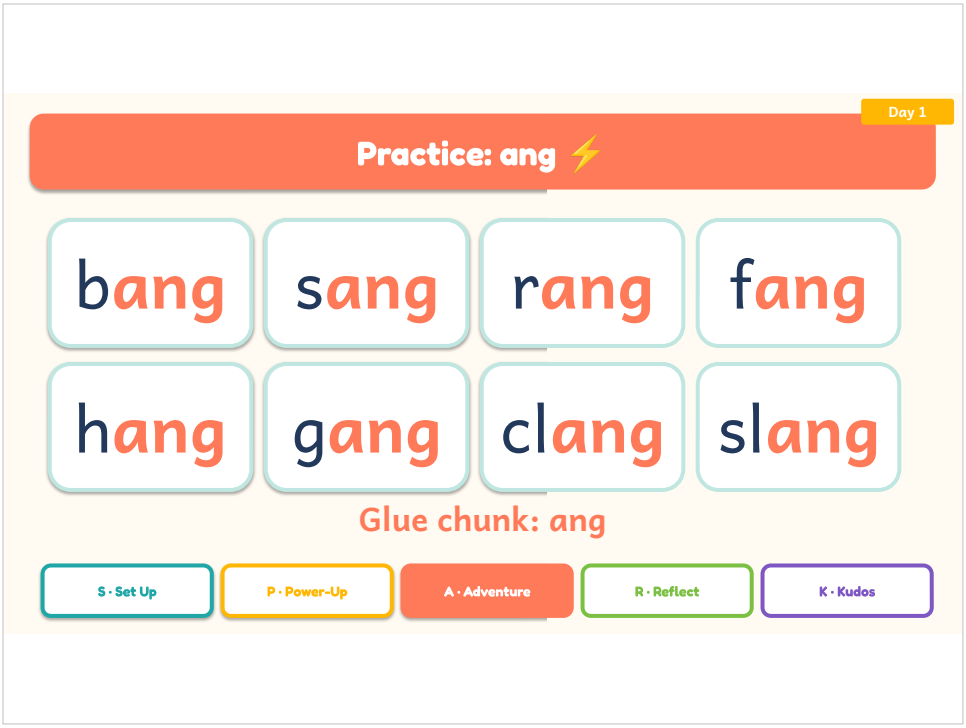

ADVENTURE · Meet the glue chunk ung.
I DO: 'This is ung. The vowel glues onto ng and we say it as one chunk: ung.' Touch your nose and feel the hum. Point to the picture: 'lung. I hear ung at the end: l … ung … lung.'
WE DO: Say ung together 3 times, then lung together while you sweep under the word.
YOU DO: Each child says ung, then reads lung alone.
ERROR FIX: If a child splits it ('u-n-g'), cover the word and say, 'Glued! My turn: ung. Your turn.' If they add a hard /g/ at the end, have them hold the nose hum and stop.

I DO / WE DO: '/s/ … ing … sing!' Slide your hand under the chunk first, then sweep the whole word.

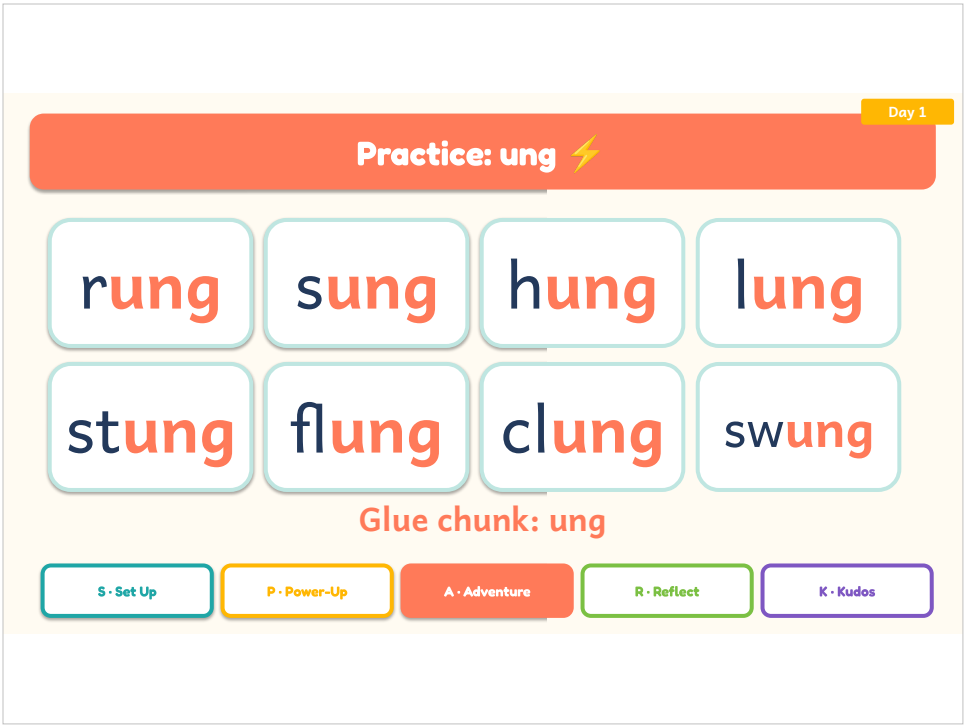

ADVENTURE · Word list: ing words only (no mixing yet).
I DO: Point to the colored chunk. 'Every word here has ing.' Read ring slowly: front sound, then ing, then the whole word.
WE DO: Read every word together: tap the front sound, swipe under ing, read the whole word.
YOU DO: Each child reads 2 words alone, then partners read the whole list.
ERROR FIX: If a child misreads, point to the chunk: 'What's the glue chunk? (ing). Now add the front sound.' Cover the front sound, say ing, then uncover and re-read.

ADVENTURE · Word list: ang words only (no mixing yet).
I DO: Point to the colored chunk. 'Every word here has ang.' Read sang slowly: front sound, then ang, then the whole word.
WE DO: Read every word together: tap the front sound, swipe under ang, read the whole word.
YOU DO: Each child reads 2 words alone, then partners read the whole list.
ERROR FIX: If a child misreads, point to the chunk: 'What's the glue chunk? (ang). Now add the front sound.' Cover the front sound, say ang, then uncover and re-read.

ADVENTURE · Word list: ong words only (no mixing yet).
I DO: Point to the colored chunk. 'Every word here has ong.' Read song slowly: front sound, then ong, then the whole word.
WE DO: Read every word together: tap the front sound, swipe under ong, read the whole word.
YOU DO: Each child reads 2 words alone, then partners read the whole list.
ERROR FIX: If a child misreads, point to the chunk: 'What's the glue chunk? (ong). Now add the front sound.' Cover the front sound, say ong, then uncover and re-read.

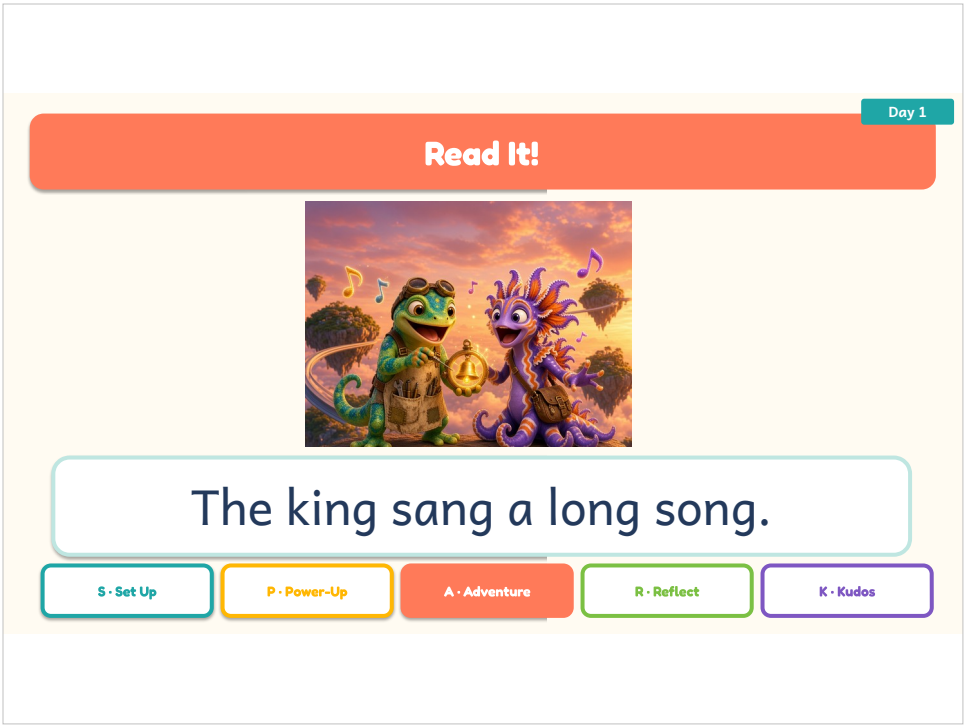

ADVENTURE · Word list: ung words only (no mixing yet).
I DO: Point to the colored chunk. 'Every word here has ung.' Read sung slowly: front sound, then ung, then the whole word.
WE DO: Read every word together: tap the front sound, swipe under ung, read the whole word.
YOU DO: Each child reads 2 words alone, then partners read the whole list.
ERROR FIX: If a child misreads, point to the chunk: 'What's the glue chunk? (ung). Now add the front sound.' Cover the front sound, say ung, then uncover and re-read.

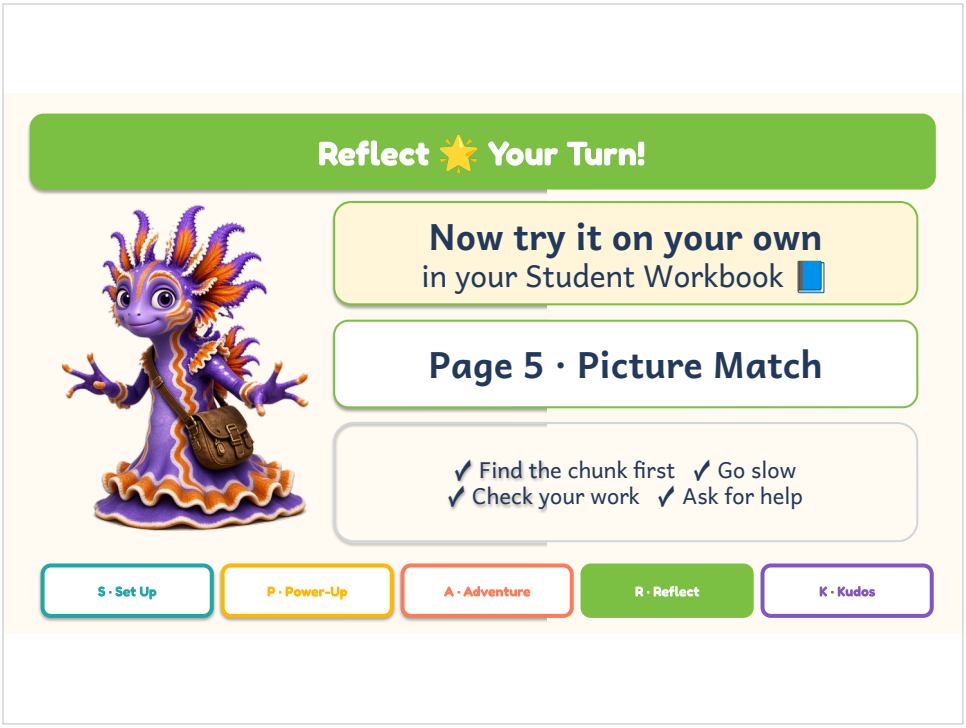

WE DO (choral, then partners): 'Find the glue chunk first. Then add the front sound. k … ing … king!' Pre-correct before choral reading.

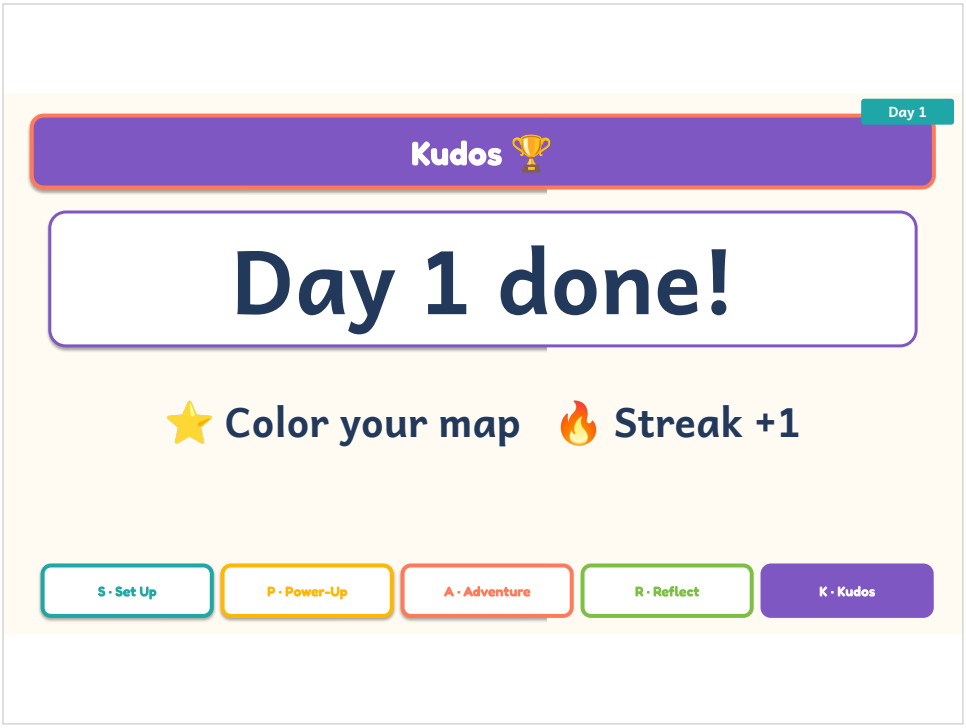

YOU DO: students whisper-read each word, then read to a partner. Circulate and listen to 4–5 students.

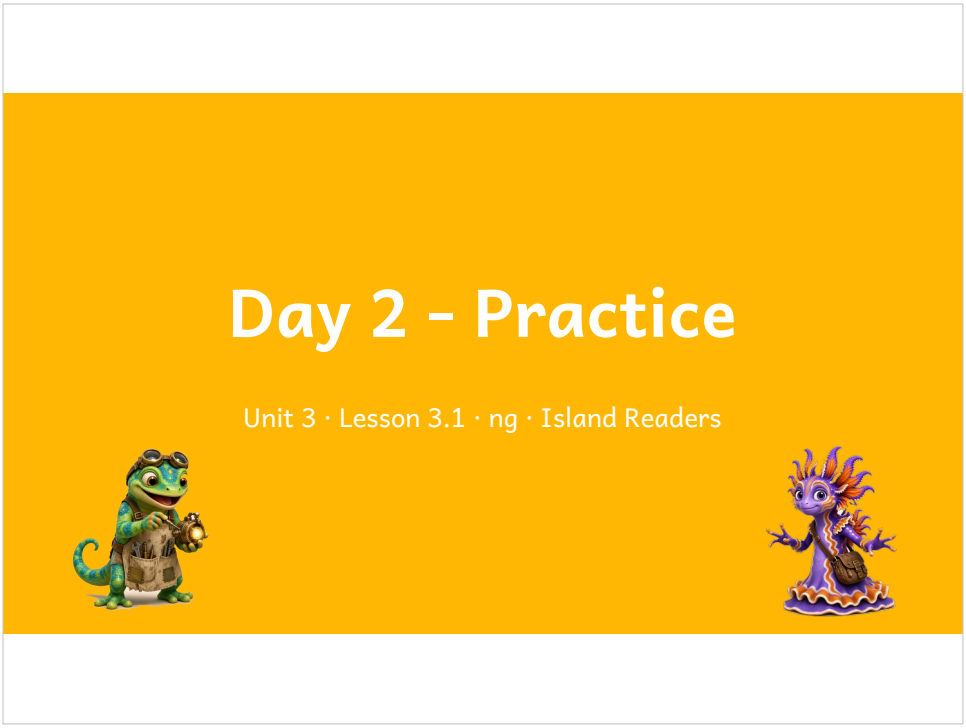

Read the sentence: finger under each word. Then Picture Match (S1).

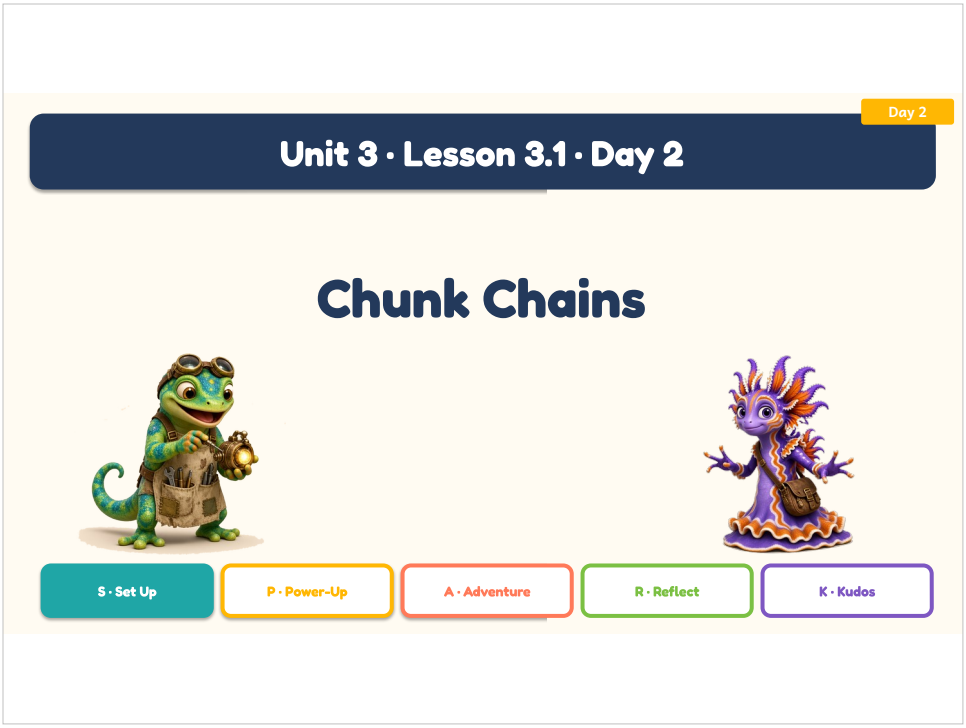

REFLECT · Independent practice (5-8 min). Students now do independent work.
SAY: 'Now try it on your own in your Student Workbook. Turn to Page 5 · Picture Match.'
Amount: 1-2 workbook pages, about 5-8 minutes. Read the directions together, do item 1 together, then students work alone.
TEACHER: circulate; listen to 2-3 students read their words aloud. Prompt with Power Moves (find the chunk, go slow, re-read). Do not correct for them; point and say 'Check that one.'
FINISH: each student shares one win and one Power Move they used, then ticks the Reflect Checklist (workbook page 6).
Not finished? It goes home as extra practice.

KUDOS (1 min): 'You completed Day 1!' Color Day 1 on the Progress Map, add 1 to the streak, name one Power Move you used. Celebrate effort, not speed.

Day 2 - Practice. Divider slide: show while students get materials ready.

Day 2: Chunk Chains. Focus: Review chunks; word chains change one part at a time. Materials: Slides Day 2 · chunk cards · letter tiles s r h b k l t w · Missing Chunks page. SET UP (2 min): packets out, start the class timer.

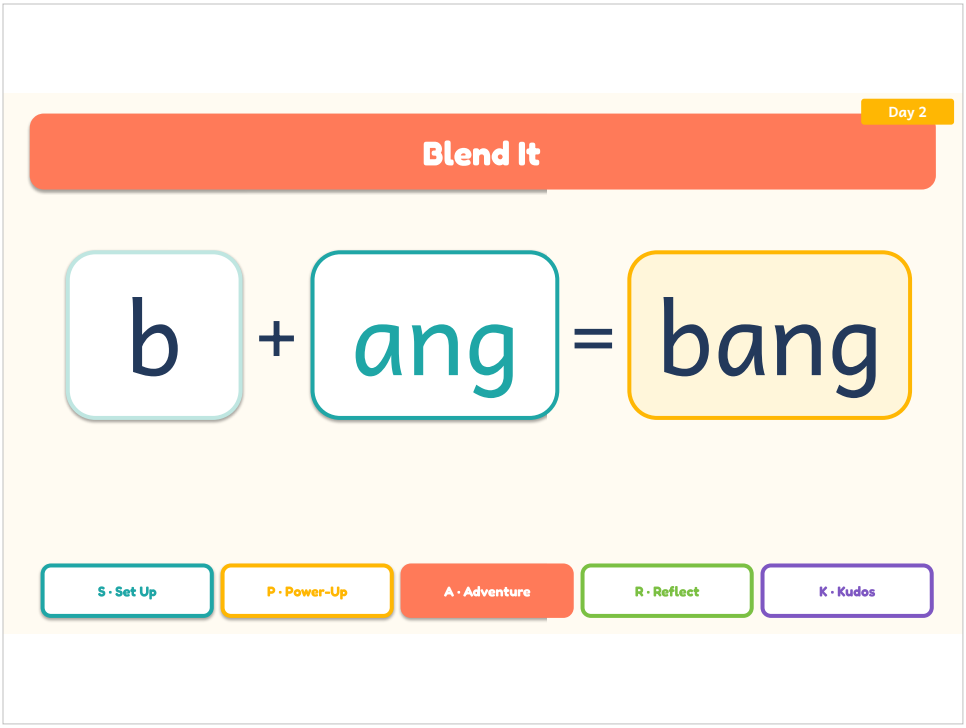

POWER-UP (3 min): 5 frill waves: wave both arms slowly over your head.
Then point to each tile; students say the sound or read the word (choral).

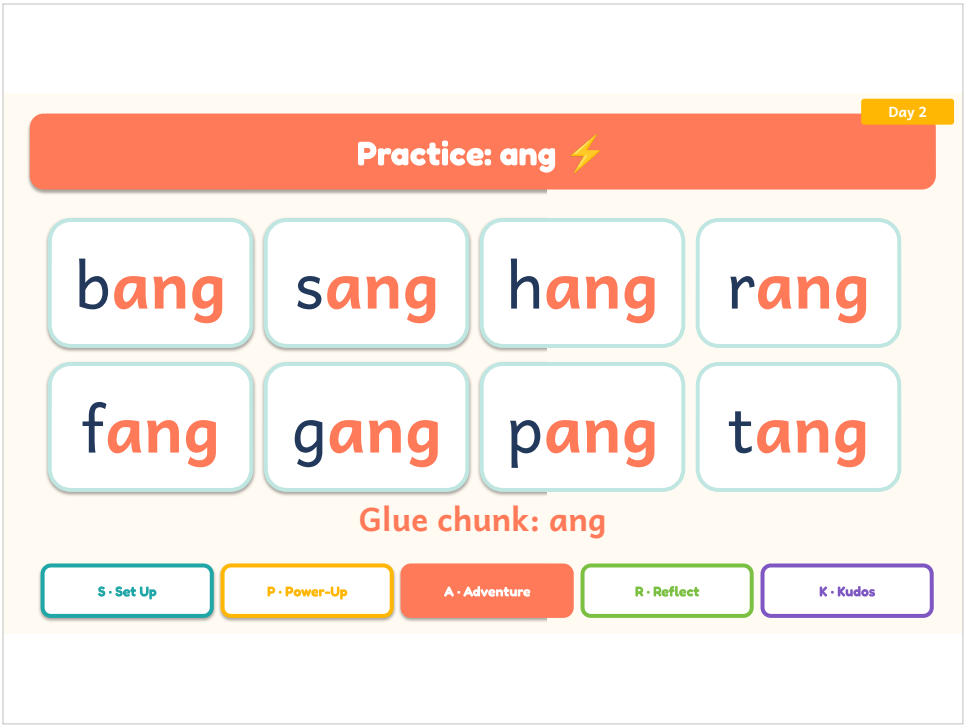

ADVENTURE · Practice: -ing words only.
I DO: Point to the colored chunk. 'This is ing. It is glued: we say it together, never split it.' Read king slowly: front sound, then ing, then the whole word.
WE DO: Read every word together: tap the front sound, swipe under the ing chunk, then read the whole word.
YOU DO: Each child reads 2 words alone. Then partners take turns reading the row.
ERROR FIX: If a child says 'kin-g', point and say, 'My turn: king. Your turn.' Have them cover the front sound, say 'ing', then add it back and re-read.

ADVENTURE · Practice: -ing words only.
I DO: Point to the colored chunk. 'This is ing. It is glued: we say it together, never split it.' Read swing slowly: front sound, then ing, then the whole word.
WE DO: Read every word together: tap the front sound, swipe under the ing chunk, then read the whole word.
YOU DO: Each child reads 2 words alone. Then partners take turns reading the row.
ERROR FIX: If a child says 'swin', point and say, 'My turn: swing. Your turn.' Have them cover the front sound, say 'ing', then add it back and re-read.

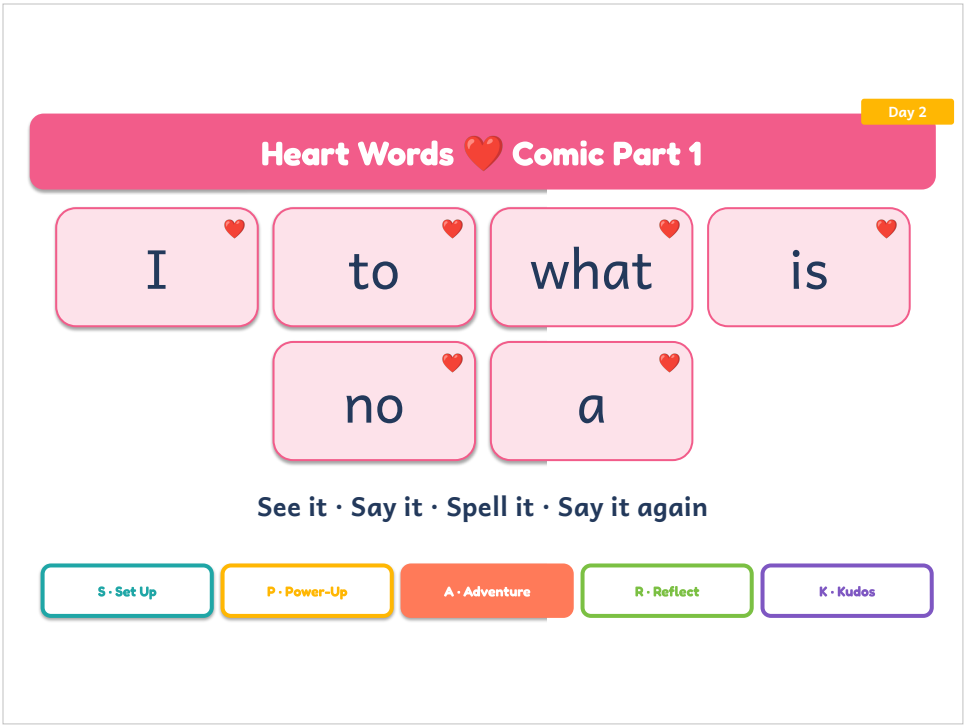

I DO / WE DO: '/b/ … ang … bang!' Slide your hand under the chunk first, then sweep the whole word.

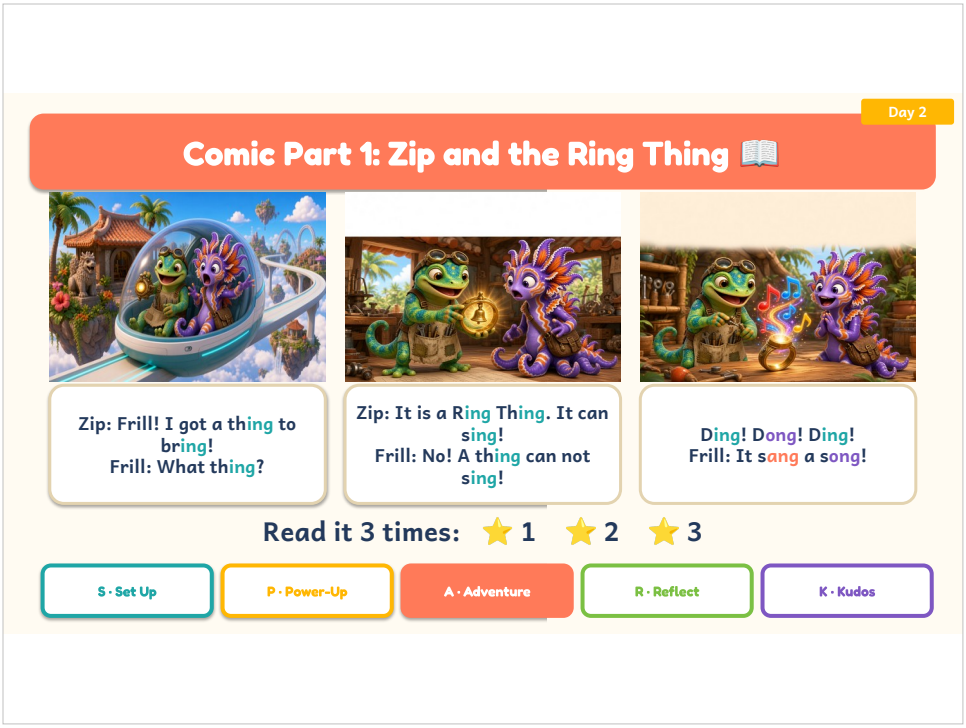

ADVENTURE · Practice: -ang words only.
I DO: Point to the colored chunk. 'This is ang. It is glued: we say it together, never split it.' Read sang slowly: front sound, then ang, then the whole word.
WE DO: Read every word together: tap the front sound, swipe under the ang chunk, then read the whole word.
YOU DO: Each child reads 2 words alone. Then partners take turns reading the row.
ERROR FIX: If a child says 'sing', point and say, 'My turn: sang. Your turn.' Have them cover the front sound, say 'ang', then add it back and re-read.

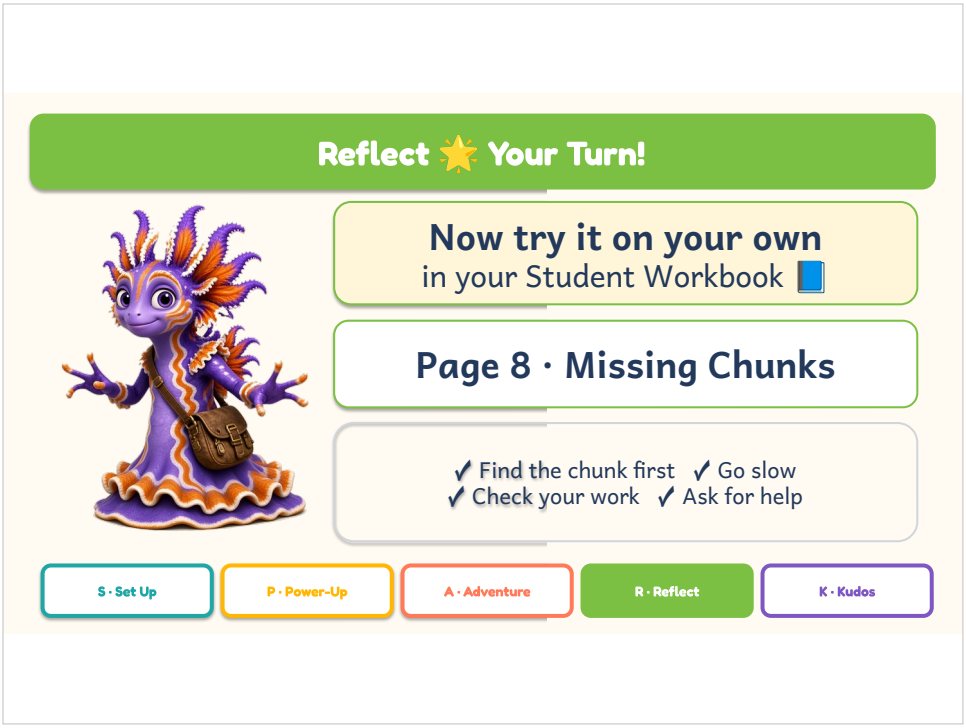

ADVENTURE · Practice: -ang words only.
I DO: Point to the colored chunk. 'This is ang. It is glued: we say it together, never split it.' Read clang slowly: front sound, then ang, then the whole word.
WE DO: Read every word together: tap the front sound, swipe under the ang chunk, then read the whole word.
YOU DO: Each child reads 2 words alone. Then partners take turns reading the row.
ERROR FIX: If a child says 'clan', point and say, 'My turn: clang. Your turn.' Have them cover the front sound, say 'ang', then add it back and re-read.

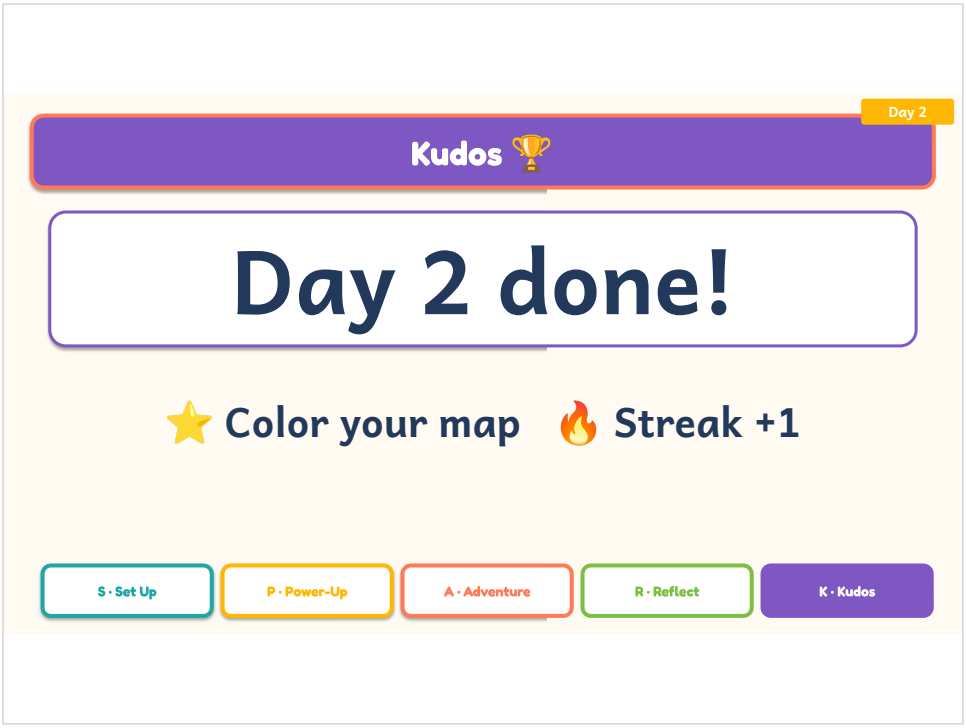

ADVENTURE · Heart Words for Comic Part 1 (2 min). These words are in today's comic part and have a tricky part we must learn by heart: I, to, what, is, no, a.
For each word: SEE IT (point), SAY IT (students repeat), SPELL IT (say each letter while tapping), SAY IT AGAIN.
HEART: point to the tricky part and draw a heart over it (e.g. the o in 'of' says /u/; the a in 'what' and 'was' says /u/ or /o/; 'I' and 'a' are one-letter words). 'The rest of the word follows the rules; the heart part we just have to know.'
Quick flash: point to words out of order; students read them fast. Then go straight to the comic.

ADVENTURE · Comic Part 1 (panels 1–3), repeated reading 3x.
READ 1 (I do): Teacher reads, students track with a finger. Point out the ng words.
READ 2 (we do): Choral read. Frill's lines one group, Zip's lines the other.
READ 3 (you do): Partner read with expression; swap roles. Color a star after each read.
ERROR FIX: Stop at a missed ng word, cover the front sound, read the chunk, then the word, then re-read the whole sentence.
Comic text: Zip: Frill! I got a thing to bring! Frill: What thing? | Zip: It is a Ring Thing. It can sing! Frill: No! A thing can not sing! | Ding! Dong! Ding! Frill: It sang a song!

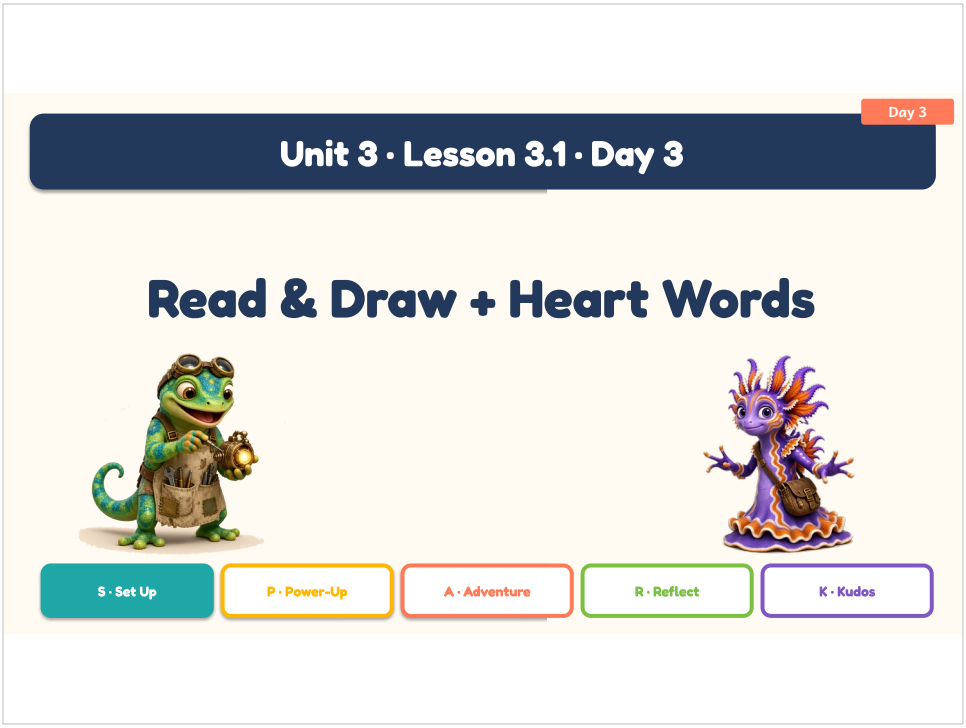

REFLECT · Independent practice (5-8 min). Students now do independent work.
SAY: 'Now try it on your own in your Student Workbook. Turn to Page 8 · Missing Chunks.'
Amount: 1-2 workbook pages, about 5-8 minutes. Read the directions together, do item 1 together, then students work alone.
TEACHER: circulate; listen to 2-3 students read their words aloud. Prompt with Power Moves (find the chunk, go slow, re-read). Do not correct for them; point and say 'Check that one.'
FINISH: each student shares one win and one Power Move they used, then ticks the Reflect Checklist (workbook page 6).
Not finished? It goes home as extra practice.

KUDOS (1 min): 'You completed Day 2!' Color Day 2 on the Progress Map, add 1 to the streak, name one Power Move you used. Celebrate effort, not speed.

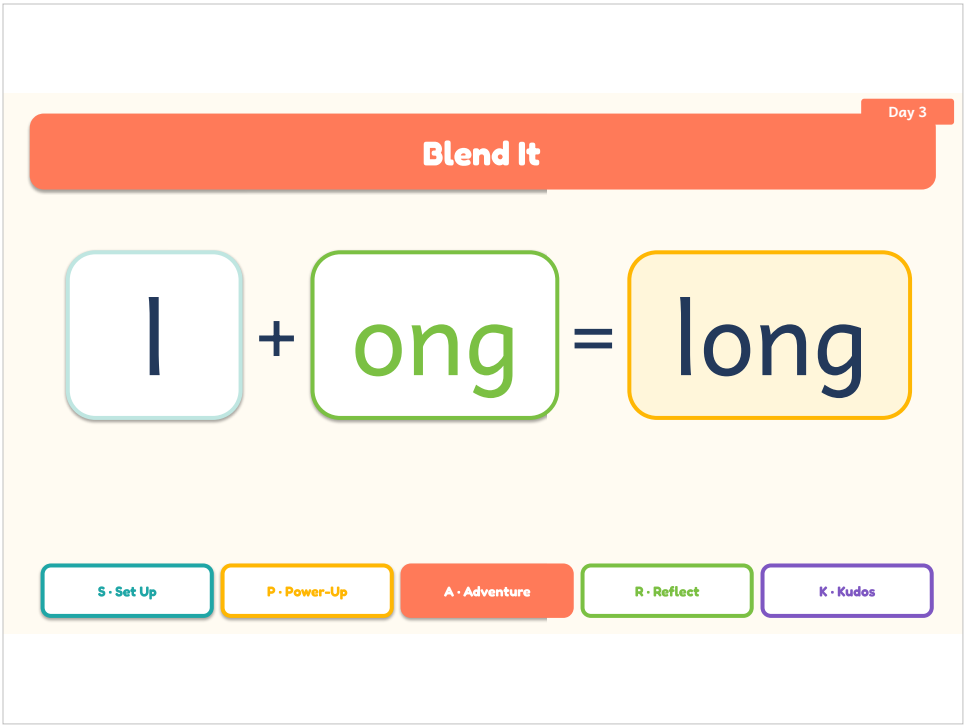

Day 3 - Build. Divider slide: show while students get materials ready.

Day 3: Read & Draw + Heart Words. Focus: Read ng words in sentences; heart words of, to, was, said, what. Materials: Slides Day 3 · heart word cards · Read & Draw page · crayons.
SET UP (2 min): packets out, start the class timer.

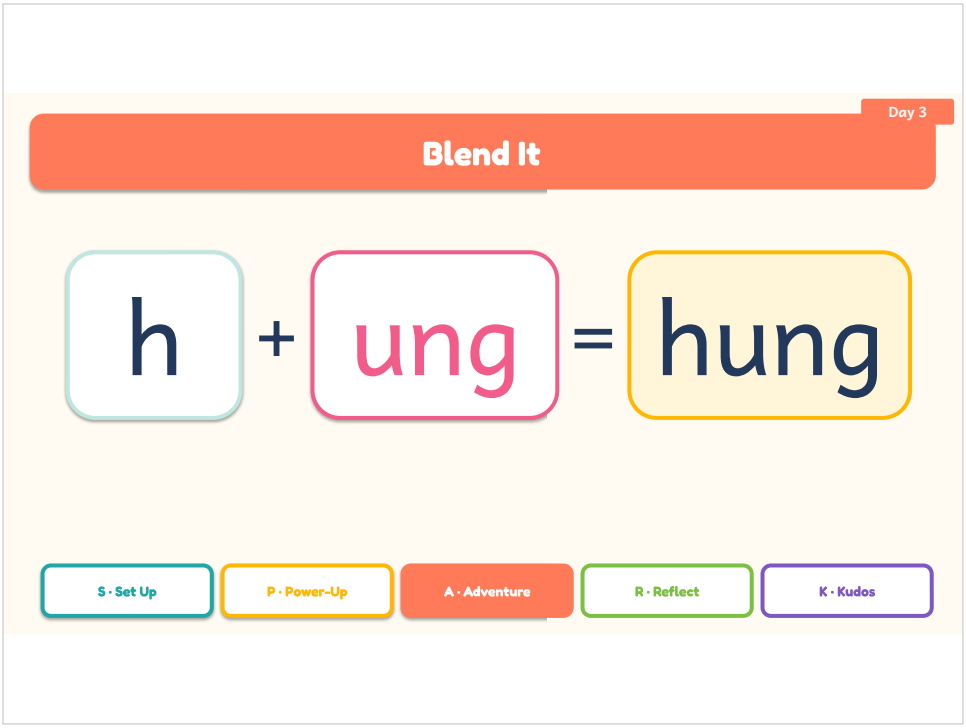

POWER-UP (3 min): Zip's gadget squeeze: squeeze fists for 3, relax for 3. Do it 3 times. Then point to each tile; students say the sound or read the word (choral).

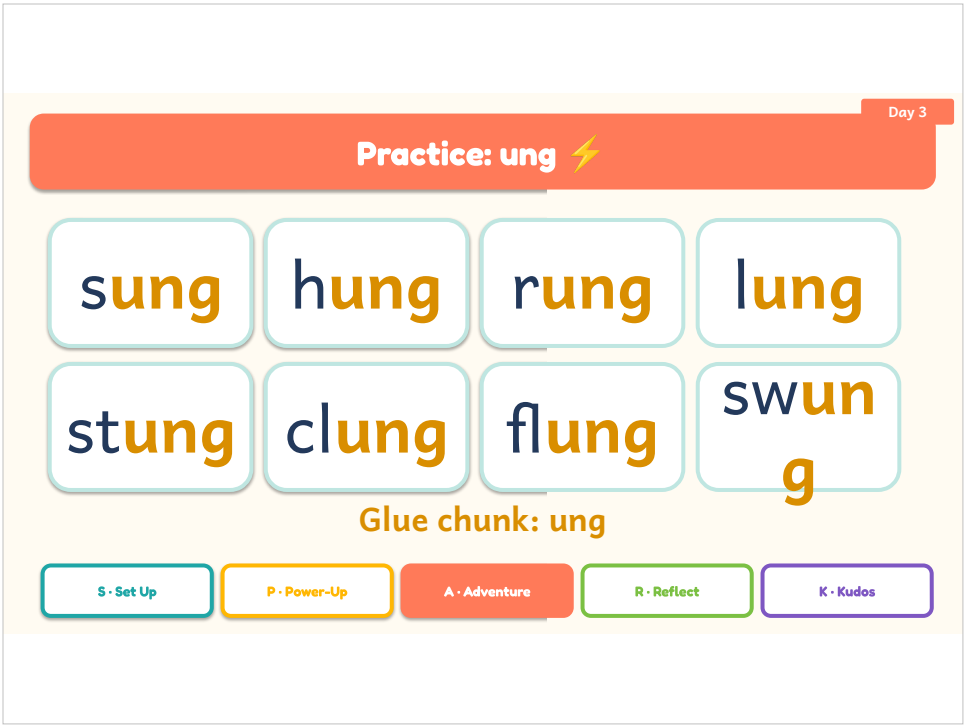

I DO / WE DO: '/l/ … ong … long!' Slide your hand under the chunk first, then sweep the whole word.

ADVENTURE · Practice: -ong words only.
I DO: Point to the colored chunk. 'This is ong. It is glued: we say it together, never split it.' Read song slowly: front sound, then ong, then the whole word.
WE DO: Read every word together: tap the front sound, swipe under the ong chunk, then read the whole word.
YOU DO: Each child reads 2 words alone. Then partners take turns reading the row.
ERROR FIX: If a child says 'sung', point and say, 'My turn: song. Your turn.' Have them cover the front sound, say 'ong', then add it back and re-read.

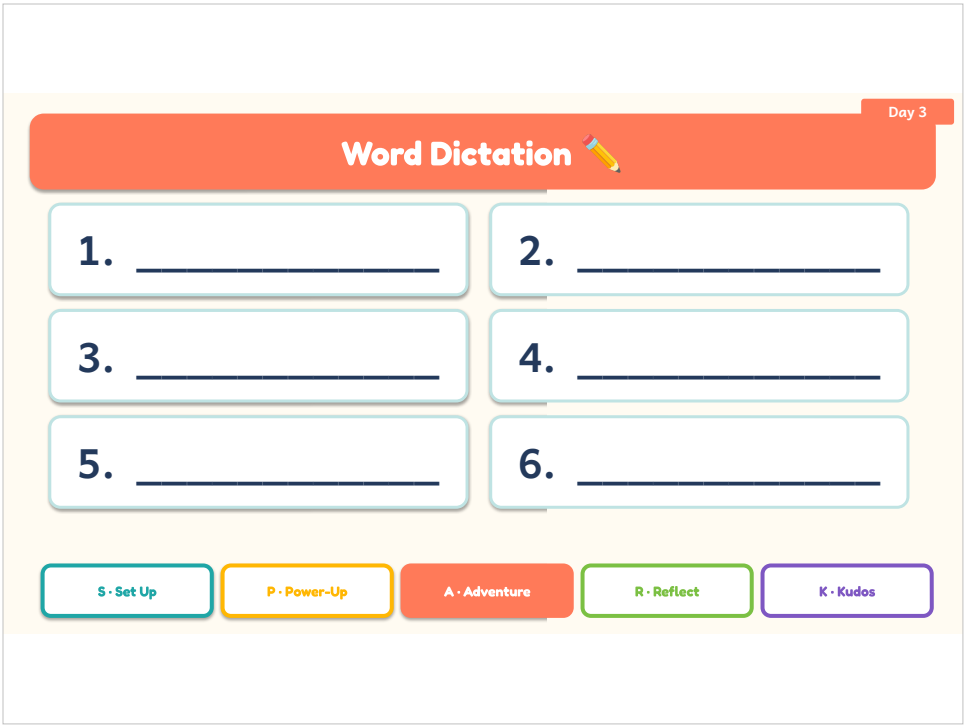

I DO / WE DO: '/h/ … ung … hung!' Slide your hand under the chunk first, then sweep the whole word.

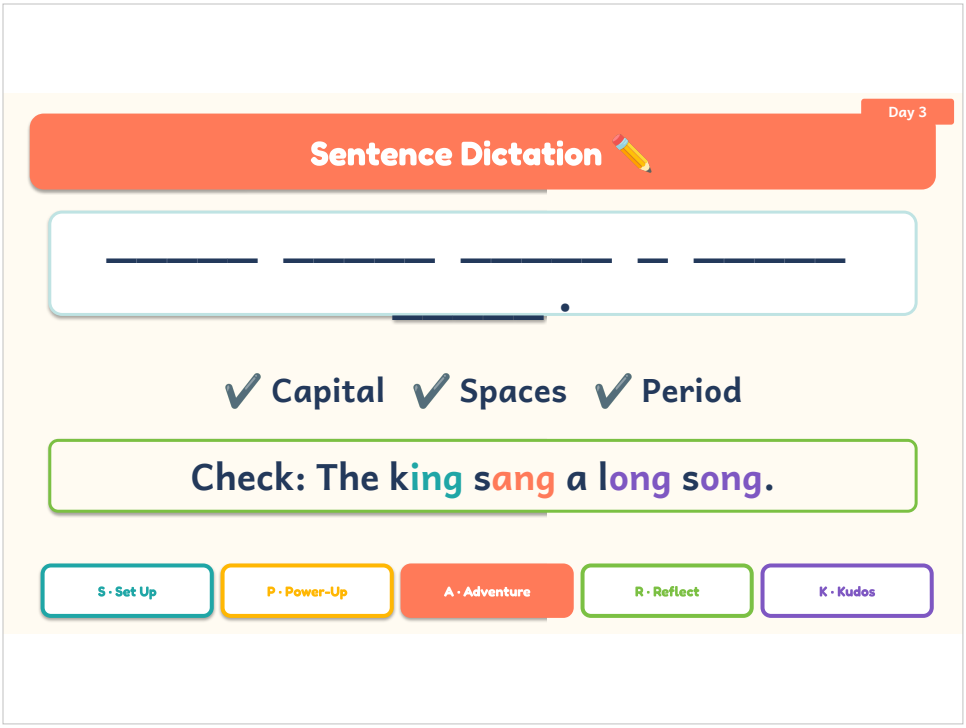

ADVENTURE · Practice: -ung words only.
I DO: Point to the colored chunk. 'This is ung. It is glued: we say it together, never split it.' Read hung slowly: front sound, then ung, then the whole word.
WE DO: Read every word together: tap the front sound, swipe under the ung chunk, then read the whole word.
YOU DO: Each child reads 2 words alone. Then partners take turns reading the row.
ERROR FIX: If a child says 'hang', point and say, 'My turn: hung. Your turn.' Have them cover the front sound, say 'ung', then add it back and re-read.

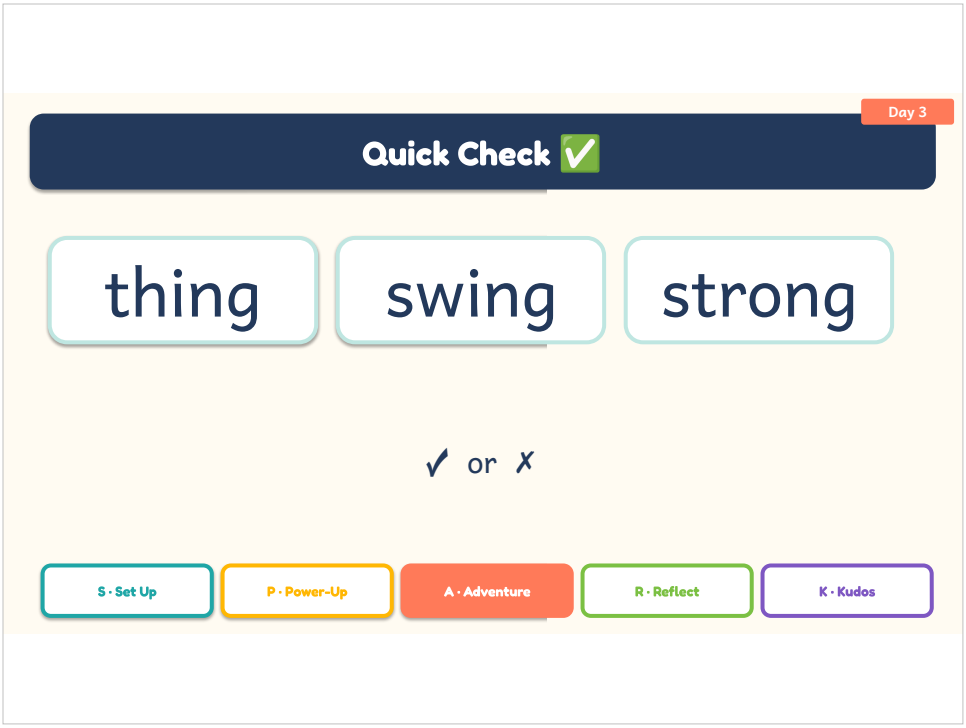

ADVENTURE · Encoding 1: chunk dictation.
I DO: 'I say a word, I listen for the end chunk. hung… I hear ung. I write u-n-g.'
WE DO: Say: song, wing, bang, lung. Students repeat the word, finger-tap, name the chunk and point to it on the slide.
YOU DO: Say: long, sting, rung, fang, gong, cling. Students write ONLY the chunk on whiteboards; show on 'Show me!'.
ERROR FIX: If they write 'n' alone, say 'Feel the nose hum: that is ng, two letters glued.' Re-say the word slowly, then rewrite.

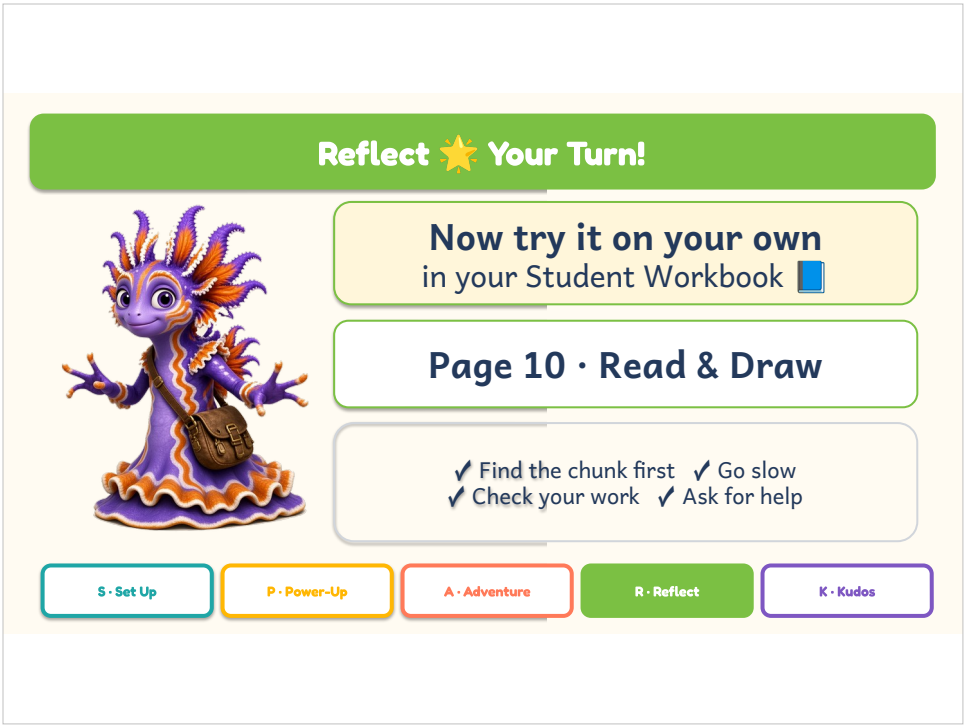

ADVENTURE · Encoding 2: whole words (say, tap, write, check).
I DO: Model 'king': say it, tap k-ing, write k + ing, check.
WE DO: 'sang', 'hung'.
YOU DO: Dictate: 1 long 2 ring 3 sung 4 bang 5 strong 6 swing. Reveal each and students self-check with a tick or fix.
ERROR FIX: Wrong vowel (sing/sang): say both words, ask 'Which vowel do you hear?' Fix only the vowel.

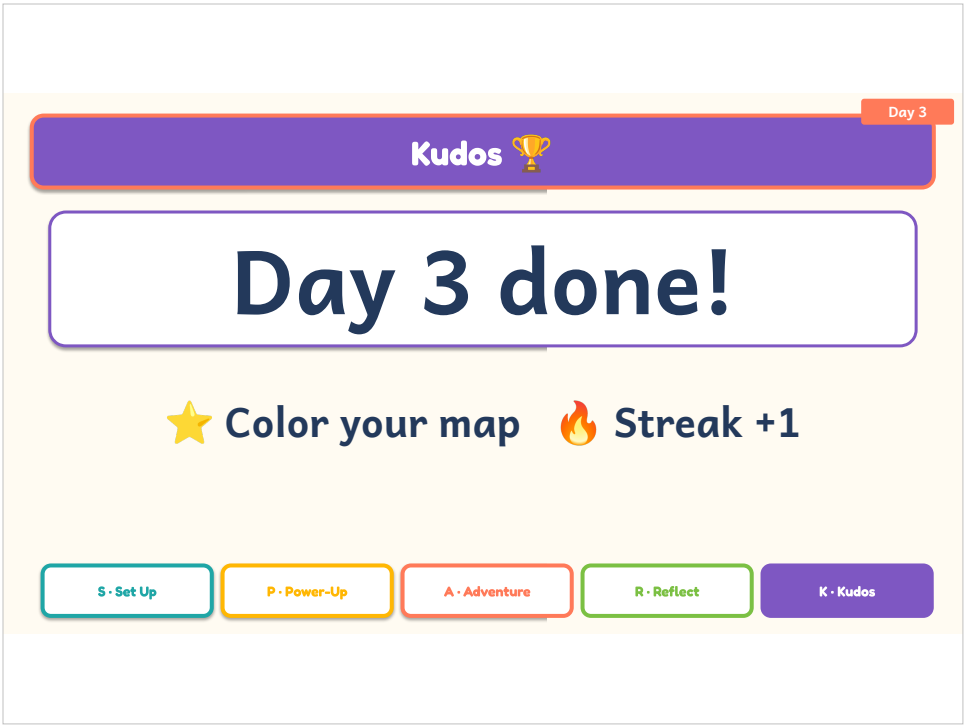

ADVENTURE · Encoding 3: sentence dictation.
Say: 'The king sang a long song.' Students repeat it twice, count the words on fingers (6), then write. Remind: capital letter, finger spaces, period.
Check together by revealing the sentence (click the box). Heart words: the, a.
ERROR FIX: Missing word? Re-say the sentence and point to each word line.

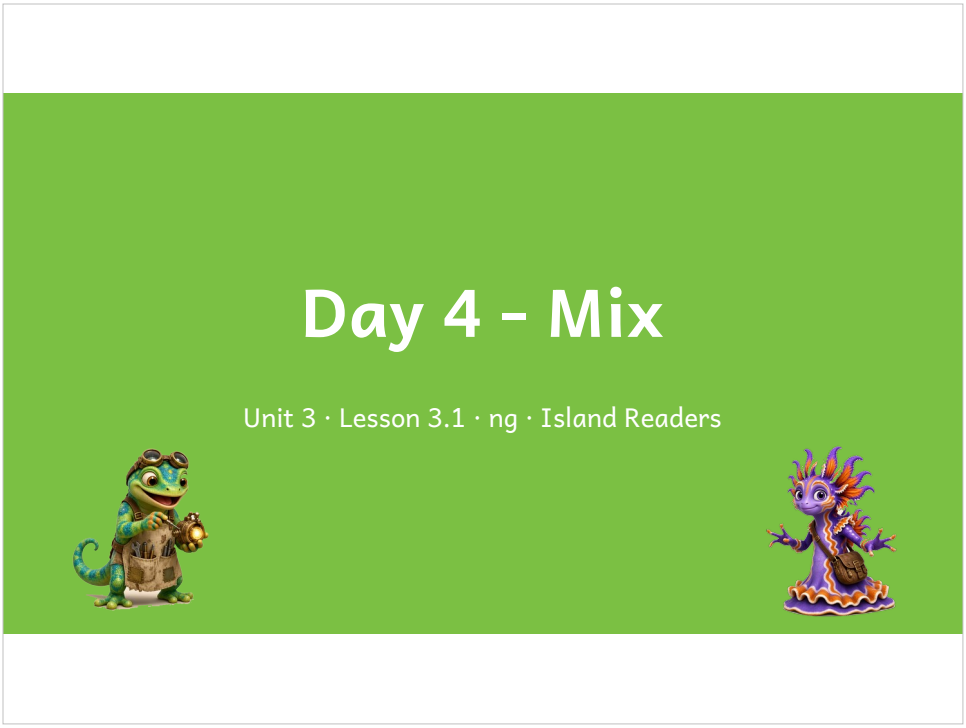

QUICK CHECK: 3 students, one word each.

REFLECT · Independent practice (5-8 min). Students now do independent work.
SAY: 'Now try it on your own in your Student Workbook. Turn to Page 10 · Read & Draw.'
Amount: 1-2 workbook pages, about 5-8 minutes. Read the directions together, do item 1 together, then students work alone.
TEACHER: circulate; listen to 2-3 students read their words aloud. Prompt with Power Moves (find the chunk, go slow, re-read). Do not correct for them; point and say 'Check that one.'
FINISH: each student shares one win and one Power Move they used, then ticks the Reflect Checklist (workbook page 6).
Not finished? It goes home as extra practice.

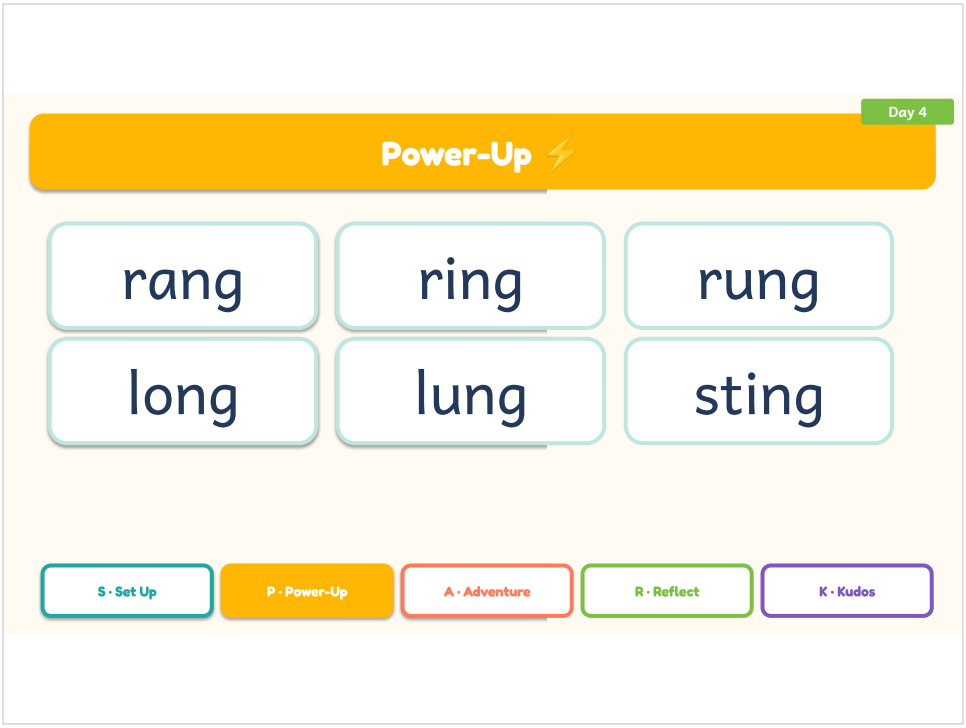

KUDOS (1 min): 'You completed Day 3!' Color Day 3 on the Progress Map, add 1 to the streak, name one Power Move you used. Celebrate effort, not speed.

Day 4 - Mix. Divider slide: show while students get materials ready.

Day 4: Word Sort + First Story Read. Focus: Sort by chunk; first read of the decodable story. Materials: Slides Day 4 · Word Sort page · Story page · optional comic “Zip and the Ring Thing”.
SET UP (2 min): packets out, start the class timer.

POWER-UP (3 min): Stretch up to the sky like a palm tree, then sway 5 times.
Then point to each tile; students say the sound or read the word (choral).

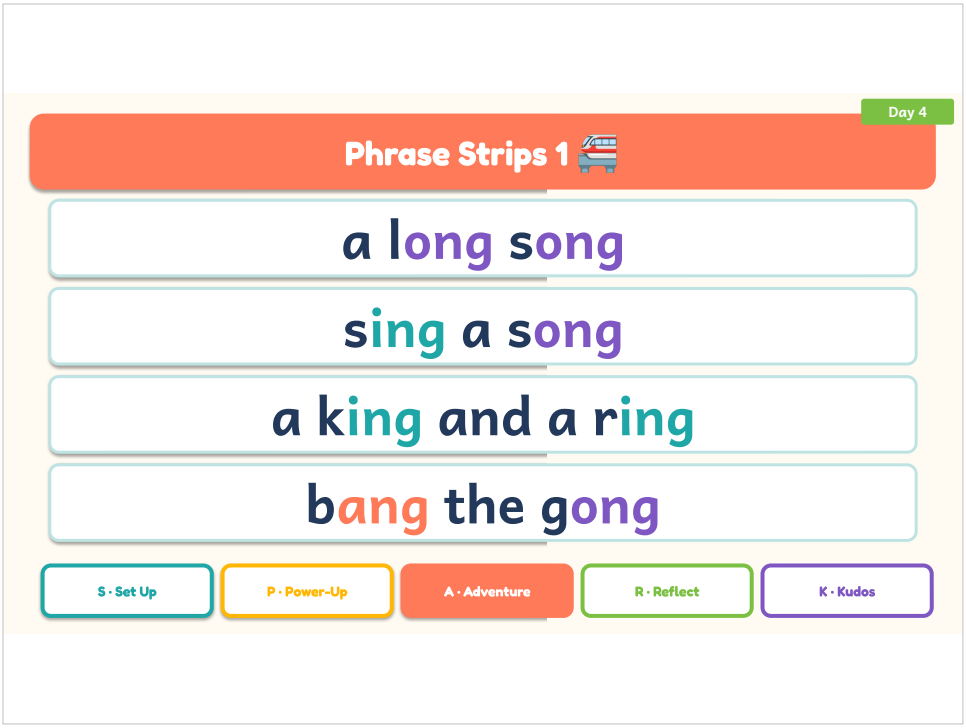

ADVENTURE · Mixed practice: ang, ing, ong, ung.
I DO: 'Now the chunks are mixed up! I find the glue chunk first, then I read.' Model the first word.
WE DO: Read each word together: name the chunk (ang/ing/ong/ung), then read the word.
YOU DO: Children read the words in a random order you point to. Fast finishers sort them by chunk.
ERROR FIX: If a child swaps vowels (sang→sung), point to the vowel: 'What sound is a? ... ang. Now read it.' Then re-read the word.

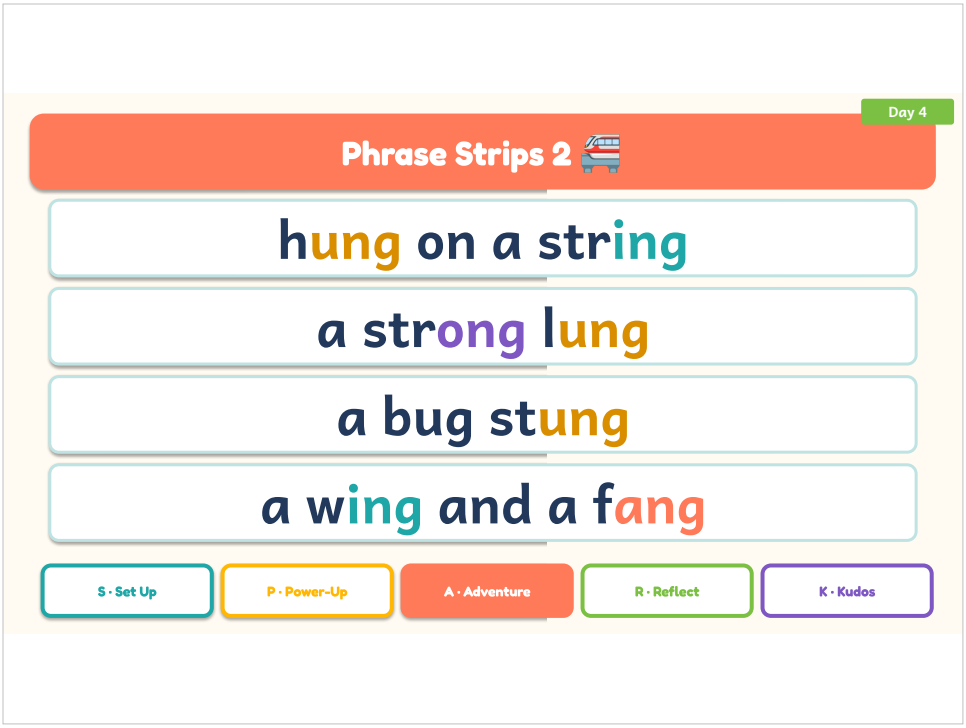

ADVENTURE · Mixed practice: ang, ing, ong, ung.
I DO: 'Now the chunks are mixed up! I find the glue chunk first, then I read.' Model the first word.
WE DO: Read each word together: name the chunk (ang/ing/ong/ung), then read the word.
YOU DO: Children read the words in a random order you point to. Fast finishers sort them by chunk.
ERROR FIX: If a child swaps vowels (sang→sung), point to the vowel: 'What sound is a? ... ang. Now read it.' Then re-read the word.

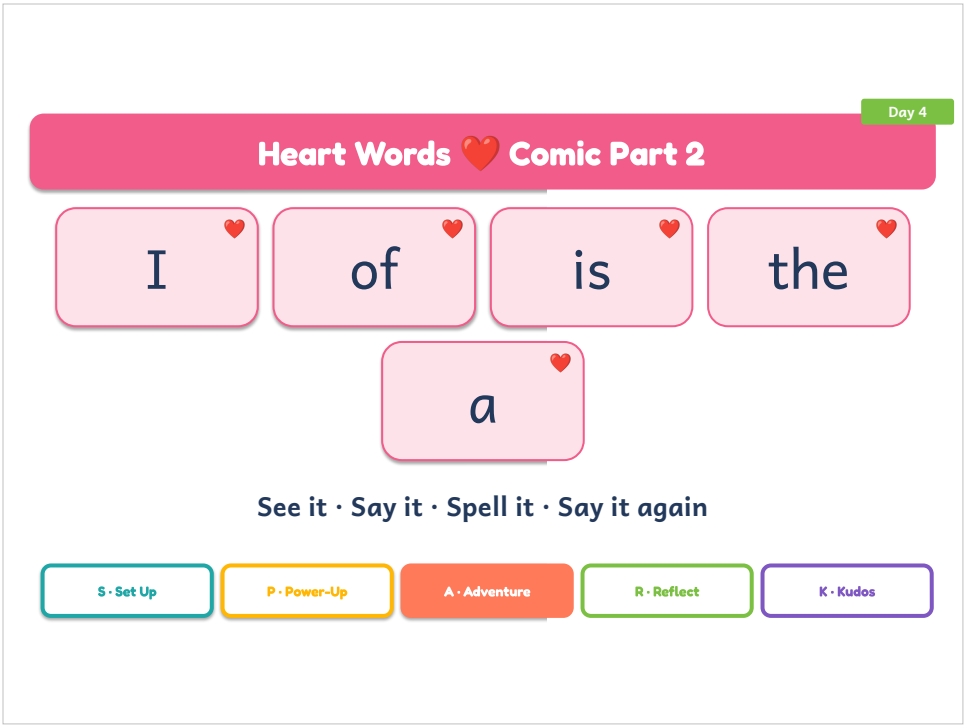

I DO: sort 2 words aloud ('song … ong … ong island'). WE DO: students say which island for the rest. Then Word Sort page (S4).

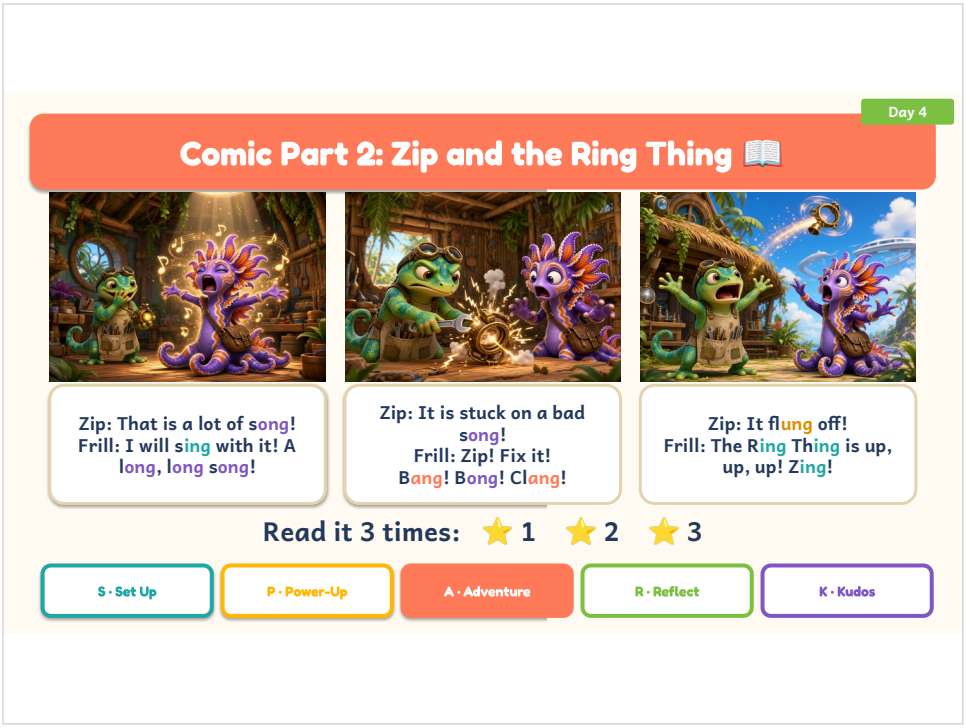

ADVENTURE · Phrase strips (fluency in chunks).
I DO: Read each phrase smoothly, sweeping a finger under it: 'I read it like I talk.'
WE DO: Echo read each phrase, then choral read.
YOU DO: Partners read all 4 phrases twice; second time faster and smoother.
ERROR FIX: Choppy word-by-word reading: model the phrase in one breath, then 'My turn, your turn.'

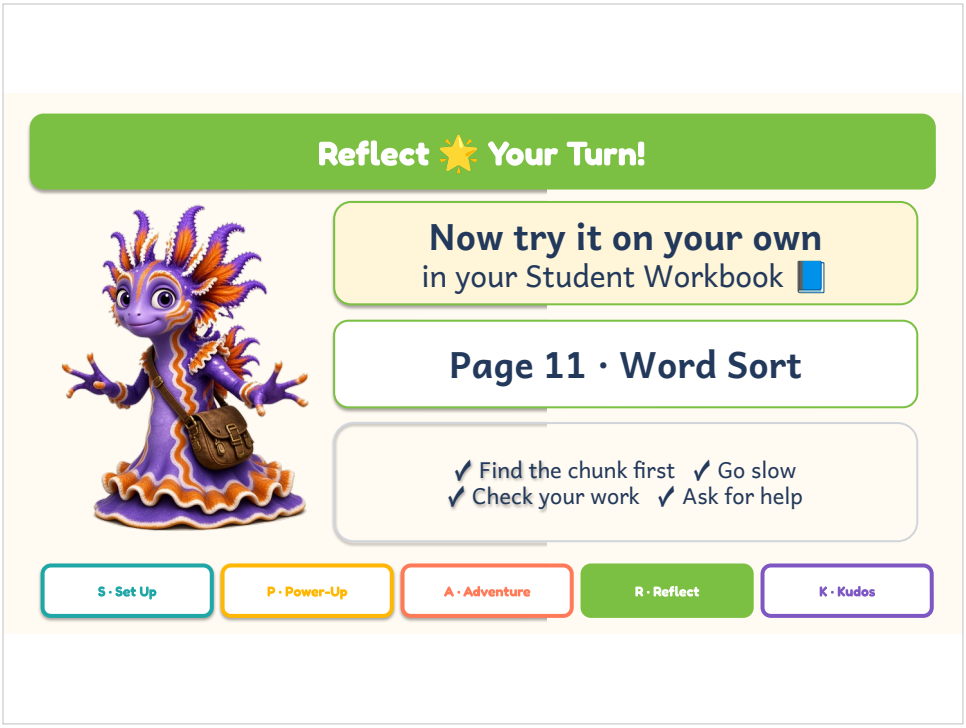

ADVENTURE · Phrase strips (fluency in chunks).
I DO: Read each phrase smoothly, sweeping a finger under it: 'I read it like I talk.'
WE DO: Echo read each phrase, then choral read.
YOU DO: Partners read all 4 phrases twice; second time faster and smoother.
ERROR FIX: Choppy word-by-word reading: model the phrase in one breath, then 'My turn, your turn.'

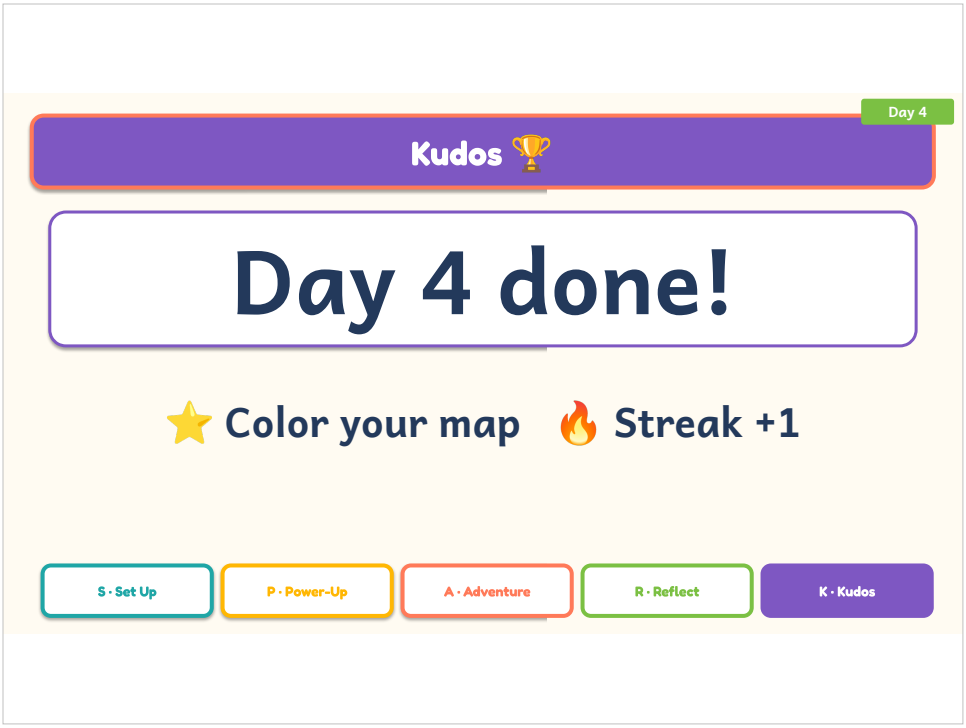

ADVENTURE · Heart Words for Comic Part 2 (2 min). These words are in today's comic part and have a tricky part we must learn by heart: I, of, is, the, a.
For each word: SEE IT (point), SAY IT (students repeat), SPELL IT (say each letter while tapping), SAY IT AGAIN.
HEART: point to the tricky part and draw a heart over it (e.g. the o in 'of' says /u/; the a in 'what' and 'was' says /u/ or /o/; 'I' and 'a' are one-letter words). 'The rest of the word follows the rules; the heart part we just have to know.'
Quick flash: point to words out of order; students read them fast. Then go straight to the comic.

ADVENTURE · Comic Part 2 (panels 4–6), repeated reading 3x.
READ 1 (I do): Teacher reads, students track with a finger. Point out the ng words.
READ 2 (we do): Choral read. Frill's lines one group, Zip's lines the other.
READ 3 (you do): Partner read with expression; swap roles. Color a star after each read.
ERROR FIX: Stop at a missed ng word, cover the front sound, read the chunk, then the word, then re-read the whole sentence.
Comic text: Zip: That is a lot of song! Frill: I will sing with it! A long, long song! | Zip: It is stuck on a bad song! Frill: Zip! Fix it! Bang! Bong! Clang! | Zip: It flung off! Frill: The Ring

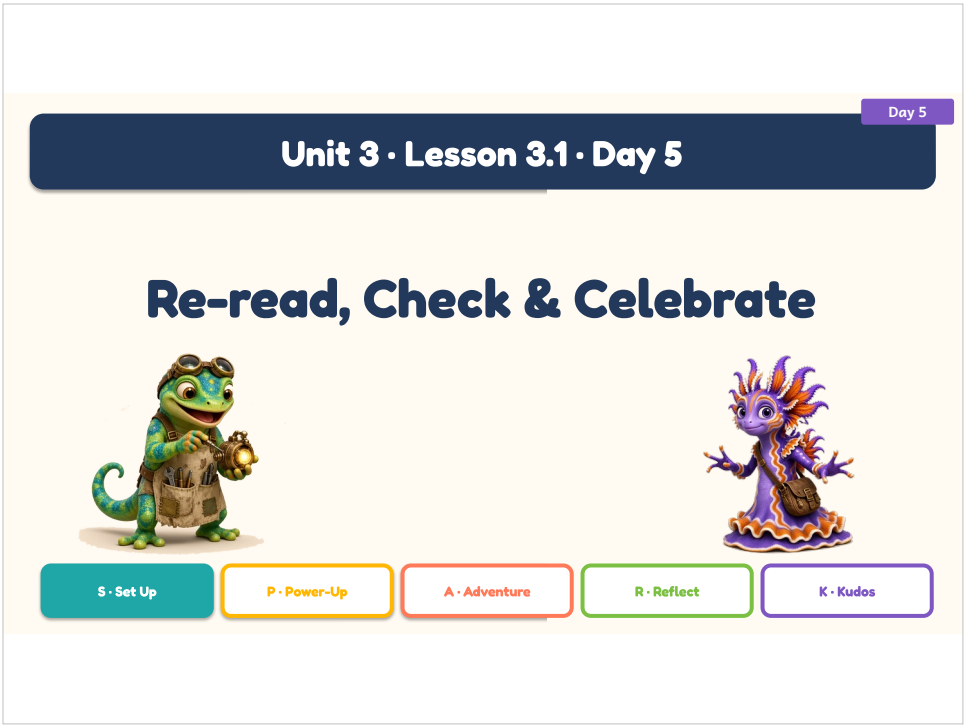

REFLECT · Independent practice (5-8 min). Students now do independent work.
SAY: 'Now try it on your own in your Student Workbook. Turn to Page 11 · Word Sort.'
Amount: 1-2 workbook pages, about 5-8 minutes. Read the directions together, do item 1 together, then students work alone.
TEACHER: circulate; listen to 2-3 students read their words aloud. Prompt with Power Moves (find the chunk, go slow, re-read). Do not correct for them; point and say 'Check that one.'
FINISH: each student shares one win and one Power Move they used, then ticks the Reflect Checklist (workbook page 6).
Not finished? It goes home as extra practice.

Day 5 - Show What You Know. Divider slide: show while students get materials ready.

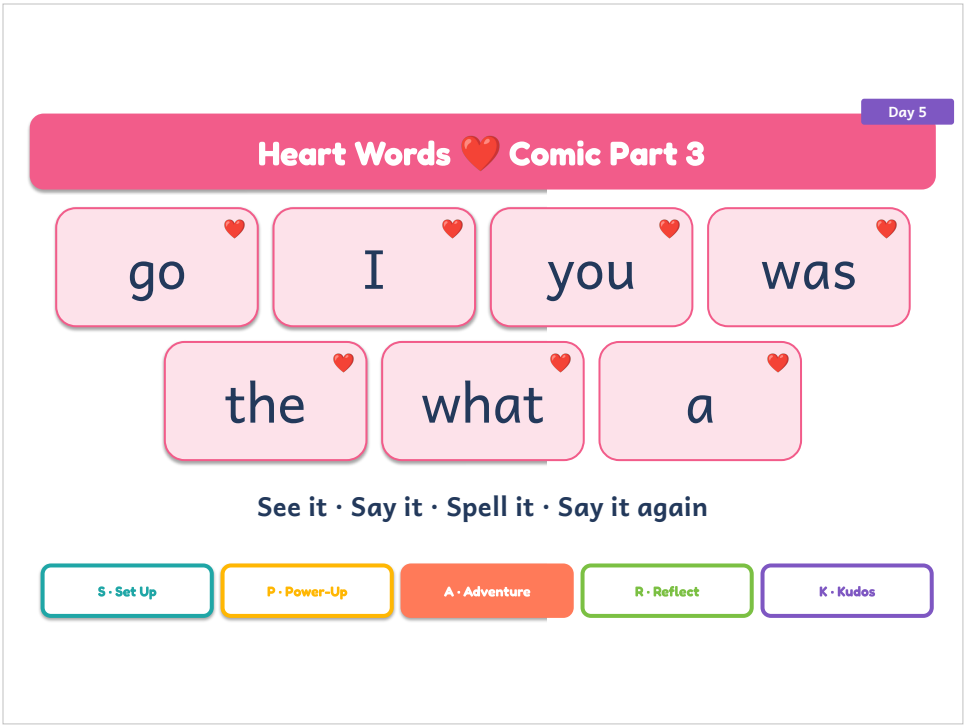

Day 5: Re-read, Check & Celebrate. Focus: Fluency re-read; 10-item check; progress map. Materials: Slides Day 5 · Story page · Lesson 3.1 Check (one per child) · class record sheet · Progress Map.
SET UP (2 min): packets out, start the class timer.

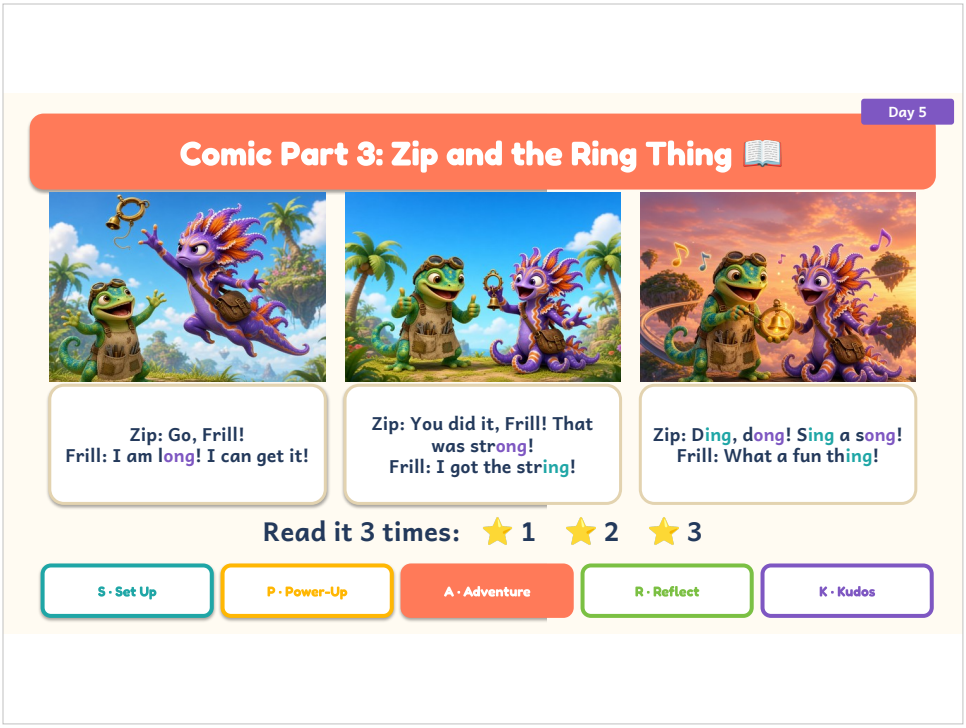

POWER-UP (3 min): 3 sea breaths, then a silent cheer.
Then point to each tile; students say the sound or read the word (choral).

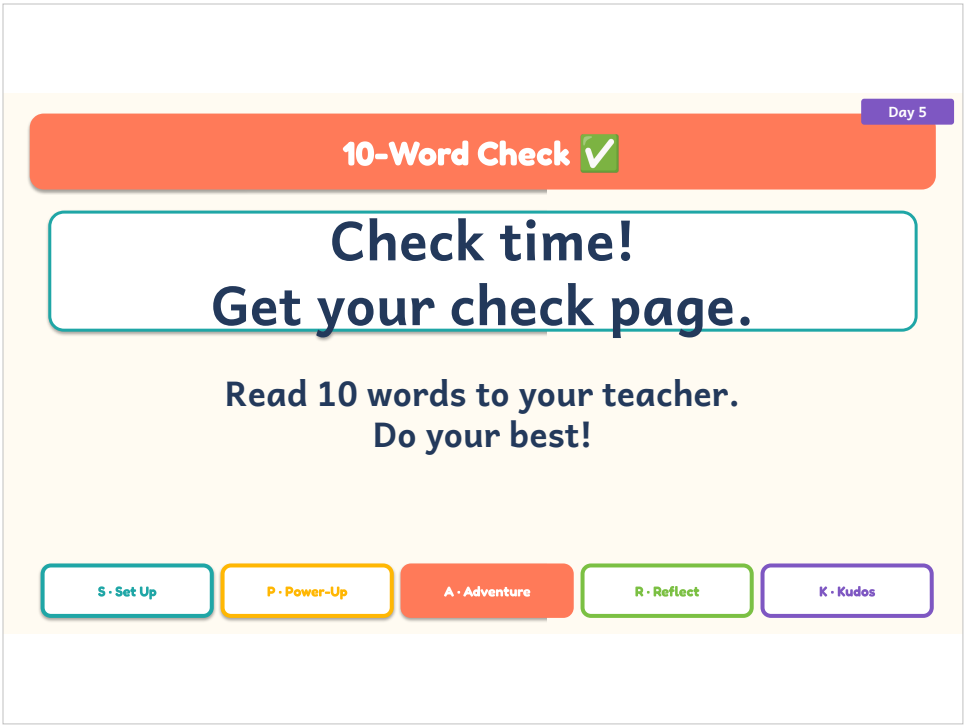

POWER-UP · 1-minute speed run.
I DO: Model reading row 1 smoothly (not racing).
YOU DO: Start a 1-minute timer. Students read rows left to right, then start again at the top. Mark the last word read. Record the score in the Power Level chart.
Try 2: Re-read to beat your own score (personal best, never compare with others).
ERROR FIX: Teacher points to a missed word, says it, student repeats and keeps going.
Today the comic is read as a whole: after Part 3, students re-read Parts 1-3 together for fluency.

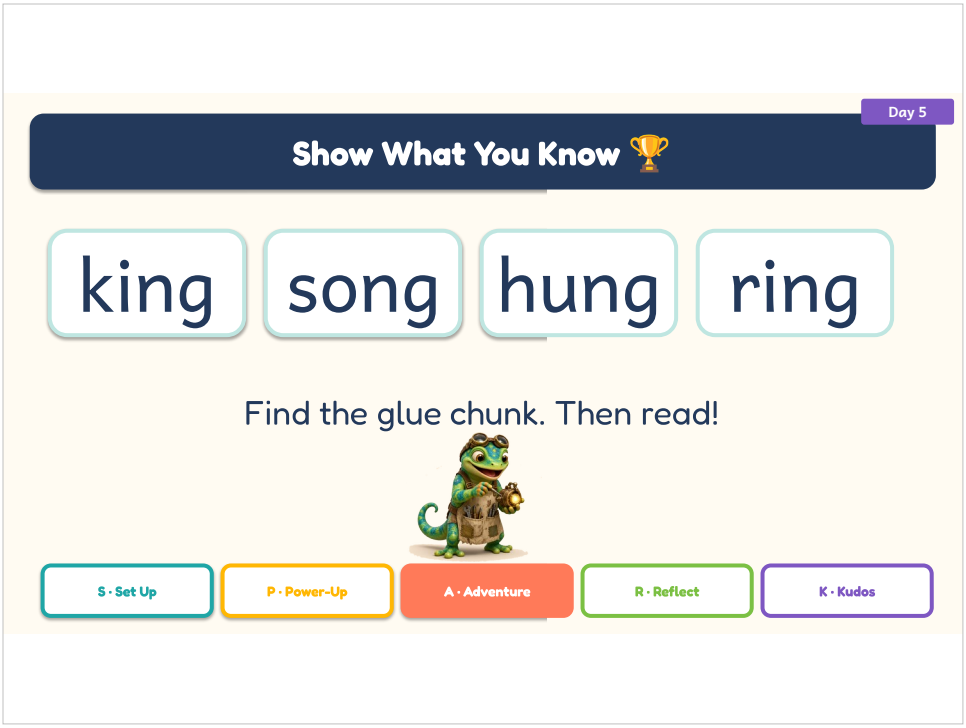

ADVENTURE · Heart Words for Comic Part 3 (2 min). These words are in today's comic part and have a tricky part we must learn by heart: go, I, you, was, the, what, a.
For each word: SEE IT (point), SAY IT (students repeat), SPELL IT (say each letter while tapping), SAY IT AGAIN.
HEART: point to the tricky part and draw a heart over it (e.g. the o in 'of' says /u/; the a in 'what' and 'was' says /u/ or /o/; 'I' and 'a' are one-letter words). 'The rest of the word follows the rules; the heart part we just have to know.'
Quick flash: point to words out of order; students read them fast. Then go straight to the comic.

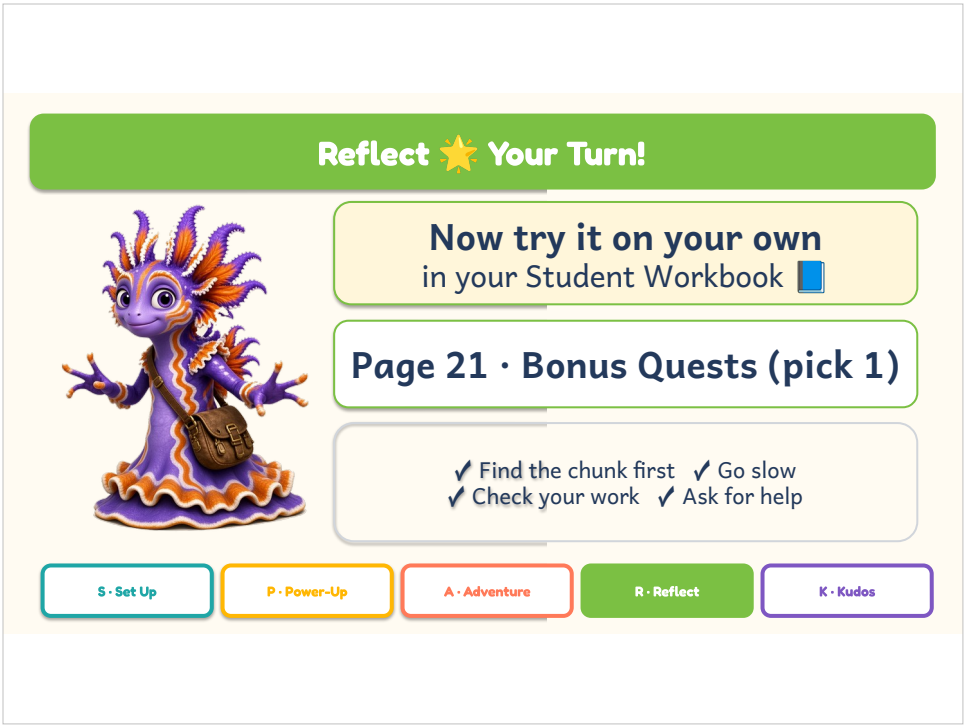

ADVENTURE · Comic Part 3 (panels 7–9), repeated reading 3x.
READ 1 (I do): Teacher reads, students track with a finger. Point out the ng words.
READ 2 (we do): Choral read. Frill's lines one group, Zip's lines the other.
READ 3 (you do): Partner read with expression; swap roles. Color a star after each read.
ERROR FIX: Stop at a missed ng word, cover the front sound, read the chunk, then the word, then re-read the whole sentence.
Comic text: Zip: Go, Frill! Frill: I am long! I can get it! | Zip: You did it, Frill! That was strong! Frill: I got the string! | Zip: Ding, dong! Sing a song! Frill: What a fun thing!

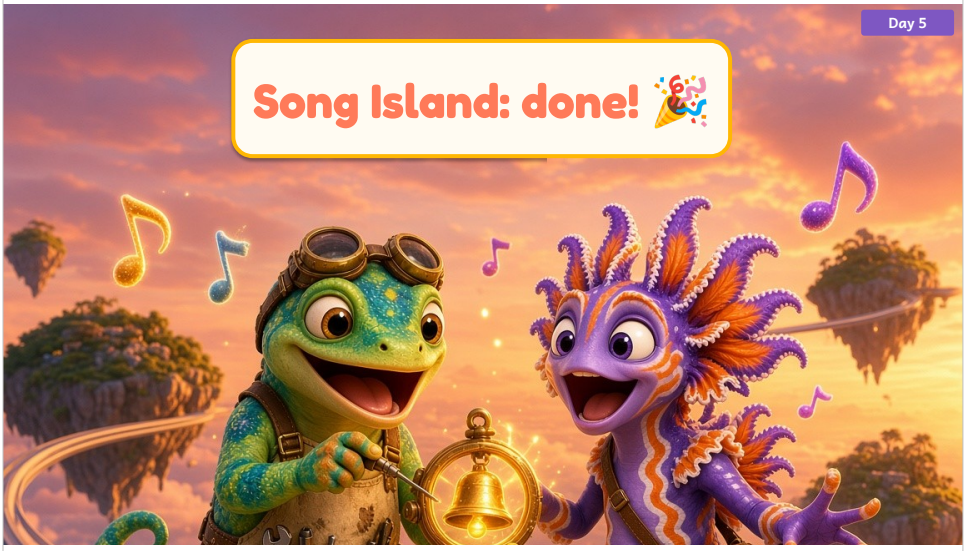

ADVENTURE · 10-item check (6 Check folder: check page in unit_ng.pdf).
One-to-one: student reads each word; mark ✓ or ✗. No help, no hints. Items: 1 sing 2 bang 3 long 4 hung 5 king 6 strong 7 wing 8 rang 9 song 10 lung.
8+/10 = ready for nk. 6–7 = reteach with the practice slides. Under 6 = small group re-do Days 2–3.
The rest of the class re-reads the comic with partners.

UNIT CHECK: one-to-one with the S6 page. No prompting. 9–10 move on to nk · 7–8 review 2–3 days · 6 or below re-teach.

REFLECT · Independent practice (5-8 min). Students now do independent work.
SAY: 'Now try it on your own in your Student Workbook. Turn to Page 21 · Bonus Quests (pick 1).'
Amount: 1-2 workbook pages, about 5-8 minutes. Read the directions together, do item 1 together, then students work alone.
TEACHER: circulate; listen to 2-3 students read their words aloud. Prompt with Power Moves (find the chunk, go slow, re-read). Do not correct for them; point and say 'Check that one.'
FINISH: each student shares one win and one Power Move they used, then ticks the Reflect Checklist (workbook page 6).

CELEBRATE: everyone colors the last star on the map. Name the effort, not the score: 'You found the chunk every time!'
