Key 3

Color the chunk: tr[unk] j[unk] t[ank] sk[unk] pl[ank] dr[ink] b[unk] th[ank]

Drawing varies. In the story the trunk has junk, a pink tank and a bell.

Last the skunk naps in the bunk and says thank you. Drawings and words vary (bank: trunk skunk bunk).

6 or below	Re-teach Day 1 in a small group, then check again.

The rest of the class re-reads the story with partners while you check one-to-one.

Record: name, score /10, missed words, and which chunk to re-teach (ink, ank, onk or unk).

Dictation & Teacher Notes

Day 2 dictation script (page 6) – say it, student repeats, taps, writes, checks

1 sink "Put the dishes in the sink."
2 bank "Mom went to the bank."
3 honk "A goose can honk."
4 junk "The trunk is full of junk."
5 think "I think it is fun." (th is one sound)
6 plank "The skunk sat on a plank." (pl blend)

Sentence 1: "I think the ship sank." (5 words) | Sentence 2: "The skunk is in the trunk." (5 words)

Say each sentence twice. The child repeats it and counts the words on fingers, then writes.

Steps for words: I SAY it, YOU SAY it, TAP the parts (s ... ink), WRITE it, CHECK with my model.

Suggested timing (supplemental practice after each slideshow)

Day 1: 15-20 min (pages 1-5). Pages 1-2 first, then 3-5 later if a child needs more time.
Day 2: 20-25 min (pages 1-6). Do the Spell It page and Dictation with the teacher.
Day 3: 15-20 min (pages 1-5). Hear each child read the 10-word check page one-to-one.

Error-correction tips

Say "Stop. Find the glued chunk." Point to ink, ank, onk or unk. Say the chunk, then blend the front sound.

Splitting nk (n + k): hum ng, then a quick k. Sweep your finger under the whole chunk.

Writing "sik" or "sinc": say "Hum it: the hum is n, the click is k. nk." Show the chunk card, rewrite.

Mixing ink / ank / unk: look at the vowel in front of nk. Compare sink - sank - sunk.

onk is rare: only honk, monk, bonk. sonk is not a word, so we use honk.

Heart words (the, was, what, to, you, is, I, a): tell the word if a child stalls, then say it, spell it, and read it again. Do not sound them out.

Fix writing with a check mark, not an eraser. Praise a self-correction: "You fixed that!"

All words use only sounds taught through Day 3 plus the heart words the, was, what, to, you, is, I, a.
